Sights and Spectacles, 1937-1956 Mary McCarthy, 2011-10 Sights and Spectacles, 1937-1956 (Classic Reprint)
Mary McCarthy, 2015-07-07 Excerpt from Sights and Spectacles 1937 1956 It is to be hoped that Mr Young will devote himself to one of Chekhov's more mature plays This insufferably patronizing sentence was written by me eighteen years ago in a review of Stark Young's adaptation of The Sea Gull The reader should be warned that he will come upon many such sentences in the early parts of this collection he will have to bear with them if he can in the interests of the record I have not tried to update my views or to rewrite passages that grate on my ear today The only rewriting has been for the sake of clarity where a topical reference has lost its meaning or where a passage has become obscure even to me What is heard in the early sections is the voice of a young earnest pedantic pontificating critic The judgments are harsh though I do not for the most part disagree with them What irritates me is the tone of cocksure condescending cleverness The playwright assumes that his hero's irresolution is of a tragic order while as a matter of fact it is comically pathetic It is the voice of a period as well as that of a person The period was 1937 About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies Wisconsin Library Bulletin, 1955 Twentieth-century Literary Criticism, 1978
Seeing Mary Plain Frances Kiernan, 2013-08-05 A revealing portrait of the dramatic life of writer and intellectual Mary McCarthy From her Partisan Review days to her controversial success as the author of The Group to an epic libel battle with Lillian Hellman Mary McCarthy brought a nineteenth century scope and drama to her emblematic twentieth century life Dubbed by Time as quite possibly the cleverest woman America has ever produced McCarthy moved in a circle of ferociously sharp tongued intellectuals all of whom had plenty to say about this diamond in their midst Frances Kiernan's biography does justice to one of the most controversial American intellectuals of the twentieth century With interviews from dozens of McCarthy's friends former lovers literary and political comrades in arms awestruck admirers amused observers and bitter
