Process Innovation: Enabling Change by Technology Daniel R. A. Schallmo, Leo Brecht, Bujar Ramosaj, 2018-05-10 This management manual and textbook introduces the theoretical basics of process management and provides a procedural model for process innovation The procedural model makes it possible to develop customer oriented processes in a structured manner and to design them in order to meet changing requirements This textbook has been recommended and developed for university courses in Germany Austria and Switzerland This book enables readers to understand and apply the seven phase procedural model for process innovation in order to design and implement innovative processes Exercises and review questions test understanding of the theoretically acquired knowledge

Process Innovation Thomas H. Davenport, 1993-02-24 The business environment of the 1990s demands significant changes in the way we do business Simply formulating strategy is no longer sufficient we must also design the processes to implement it effectively The key to change is process innovation a revolutionary new approach that fuses information technology and human resource management to improve business performance The cornerstone to process innovation s dramatic results is information technology a largely untapped resource but a crucial enabler of process innovation In turn only a challenge like process innovation affords maximum use of information technology s potential Davenport provides numerous examples of firms that have succeeded or failed in combining business change and technology initiatives He also highlights the roles of new organizational structures and human resource programs in developing process innovation Process innovation is quickly becoming the byword for industries ready to pull their companies out of modest growth patterns and compete effectively in the world marketplace
