Proficiency in Writing Charlie Dang, 2012-03-20 You are buying this textbook directly from its author Charlie Dang. Compassionated with the fact that college students are tormented after they fail a series of written tests or university graduation writing proficiency exams and that a graduate student at San Diego State University kills one professor and wounds three others of his thesis committee with a gun in 1994 after he fails to defend his Master's Degree thesis the third time Charlie Dang flees the ruins of his own mind after his daring and fateful trip across the Pacific Ocean on a little fishing boat from his homeland Vietnam to give birth to this brainchild with a desire to help his student peers pass such written tests or university graduation writing proficiency exams with ease and be able to write correctly creatively effectively accurately and consistently regardless of the subjects. Composed with 538 pages of comprehensive English grammar the book is structured to progress from the most basic step to the most advanced level of comprehension including practice exercises essay writing techniques and tactics effective writing skills and sample tests that are almost identical to those being administered on campuses. The English Vietnamese version of this book will also be soon available on this web site.

Self-regulatory Writing Strategies and Second Language Writing Proficiency Li Dong, 2026-02-04 This volume examines how second language learners develop effective writing skills through self-regulated learning by focusing on four key dimensions of writing strategies: cognitive, metacognitive, motivational, regulation and social behavior. Drawing on research from diverse global and regional second language contexts the book presents a comprehensive multidimensional framework explaining how learners regulate their writing processes and how developing writing proficiency supports strategic learning. It establishes fundamental theoretical foundations, analyzes the impact of each strategy type, explores the reciprocal relationships between strategies and illuminates how these interconnections evolve over time. The book also bridges the gap between theory and practice offering educators practical strategies to foster strategic development in student writers. This volume will be valuable for researchers, students and practitioners in the fields of second language acquisition and writing pedagogy.

Mapping Writing Revisions through Keystroke Logging Tanzeela Anbreen, 2025-12-29 This book presents Keystroke Logging as a powerful methodological tool for investigating writers' revision processes in writing. The volume demonstrates the ways in which Keystroke Logging can be used to observe, record and analyse writing revisions in real time, especially useful given the growing use of computer facilitated academic writing. Drawing on an integrated approach implementing both real time observation and immediate stimulated recall, Anbreen seeks to bridge the gap between theory and practice by bringing together theoretical understandings of writing revisions with practical applications of Keystroke Logging. The work makes the case for the use of Keystroke Logging in computer based writing research to better elucidate the cognitive processes L2 writers engage in during the revision process This book will be of interest to students scholars and relevant stakeholders in applied linguistics second language writing academic writing language learning and teaching and educational technology
