Real Minerva:

The Real Minerva Mary Sharratt, 2004 Minerva Minnesota in 1923 is the picture of Willa Cather like gentility the Northern Pacific Railway runs through a town center dominated by church steeples and the Hamilton Creamery and Pop Factory But Minerva is also a small town of limited opportunity a place where the status quo is firmly entrenched and rigidly enforced Against this tableau of midwestern placidity and calm three Minerva women assert their dignity and independence against all odds The troubled relationship between young Penny and her mother Barbara is getting worse Disturbed by her mother's affair with the man they clean house for Penny answers an ad to work for Cora Egan a Chicago society woman who has fled a bad marriage and intends to raise her child alone on her grandfather's farm Cora's situation shocks the town but over time her presence opens a door in Penny's and Barbara's lives Through these women Mary Sharratt considers what it takes to reinvent the self to claim one's true identity Mary Sharratt's first novel Summit Avenue was hailed as a remarkable debut that weaves dark evocative fairy tales and passionate longings into an incandescent coming of age story Publishers Weekly starred review Readers interested in feminine archetypes and women in myth will be similarly drawn to Sharratt's newest novel Exquisite historical detail and emotional resonance infuse The Real Minerva an old fashioned story with a modern spirit

Hunter Art Wiederhold, 2011-02-03 In this second installment Hunter and his friends must locate and destroy the secret genetics laboratory of rival Opus Dei before they can create something powerful enough to take out the Vatican At the same time they must contend with dead people who refuse to stay buried glowing ghosts Cajun werewolves vampires demons and bloodthirsty witches Set against the backdrop of New Orleans during the Second Age master storyteller Art Wiederhold once again weaves a rich magical tapestry of horror science fiction fantasy and dark humor that is certain to delight readers of all ages

Building Hope John Bateson, 2007-12-30 Building Hope tells from the trenches what it's like to lead and manage a nonprofit agency Filled with insights tips lessons learned and poignant stories this book will help nonprofit executives board members and volunteers alike leave work at the end of each day knowing they made a difference in the lives of others With nearly twenty seven years in the nonprofit sector John Bateson executive director of a busy crisis center has seen it all Eager to share his knowledge he explains what it takes to lead employees and volunteers as well as how to satisfy the other stakeholders donors government officials board members and of course service recipients As Bateson demonstrates so eloquently the relationship between nonprofit organizations and all these stakeholders is built on trust need compassion and above all else hope Building Hope tells from the trenches what it's like to lead and manage a nonprofit agency Filled with insights tips lessons learned and poignant stories this book will help nonprofit executives board members and volunteers alike leave work at the end of each day knowing they made a difference in the lives of others With nearly twenty seven years in the nonprofit sector John Bateson executive director of a busy crisis center has seen it all Eager to share his knowledge he explains what it takes to lead employees and volunteers as well as how to satisfy the other stakeholders donors government officials board members and of course service recipients As Bateson demonstrates so eloquently the relationship between nonprofit organizations and all these stakeholders is built on trust need compassion and above all else hope But stakeholders expect a lot in return like competence and evidence that the organization is making a difference in the community and the lives of others Leading nonprofits competently is what this book is all about Each chapter focuses on a different facet of nonprofit leadership how to build a strong and effective governing board manage and inspire staff develop efficient and effective programs raise money recruit and retain talented volunteers market the agency manage finances and plan for the future Best of all each chapter is laced with stories that hammer home a point What happens and what to do when a major gift solicitation goes horribly wrong why cultural competency is critical and what unusual interview questions can uncover the most promising potential employees The workload can be crushing and the stress level high in the nonprofit world Yet being able to look around a community and see tangible evidence of success makes it all worthwhile This book will help provide the skills and the heart nonprofit managers need to make a difference and build the hope that will sustain others for years to come
