Personalities in a World of Change Ikechukwu Anthony Kanu,Ejikemeuwa J. O. Ndubisi,Kanayo Nwadiolor,2018-08-16
This notwithstanding over the years the African culture in all its manifestations became the bulls eye for attack especially during the Atlantic Slave Trade Colonialism Racism During these periods Europe dealt coup de grace to the African personality to his is ness by destroying the African cultural values They disrespected African peculiarities languages enriched with traditions of centuries parables many of them the quintessence of family and national histories modes of thought influenced more or less by local circumstances local poetry which reveals the profundity of African literary wizardry A lot of these were altered against the background that the African in all his susceptibilities is an inferior race and that it is needful to give him a foreign model beacon to emulate and follow In our time of globalization bringing about a new sweep of changes on the African cultural values a more careful historically grounded interpretation of the cultural changes occurring on the continent is therefore needed and for it to be useful it should enable us to transcend the narrow and narrowing parameters that currently dominate the discourse on the processes and structures of change occurring in contemporary Africa This piece is a great accomplishment by African scholars to do a grounded hermeneutics of the structures of changes taking place in Africa The different chapters are the fruits of the 2018 International Conference of the Association for the Promotion of African Studies APAS The authors like artists combine originality with insightful imagination They have carefully treated the historical conceptual basic and substantive issues in cultural change in Africa Their coherent systematic and encyclopedic approaches have the capacity to expand the intellectual and professional horizon of its readers Bridging the Gap III ,1987

The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books, 1986 to 1987 British Library, 1988 The Audience in the News Dwight DeWerth-Pallmeyer, 2013-11-05 In recent years communication scholars have taken a renewed interest in analyzing the audience and its impact on the communication process. Similarly, news editors and producers have often turned toward a marketing orientation which seeks to give new readers and viewers what they want or at least what they say they want. Yet there has still been little written about just how the audience factors into the news which is produced. Seeking to fill that niche, this book argues that audience images are quite important in the construction of news but not easily detected. That is because journalists are not principally interested in their audience; they are interested in the news. USE THIS PARAGRAPH ONLY FOR GENERAL CATALOGS. This volume argues that although journalistic images of the audience may be incomplete, they do exist and powerfully help shape the work of journalists in producing journalistic texts. Using a case study of news workers and news texts at two Chicago newsgathering organizations, the Chicago Tribune and WGN TV, this book examines notions of audience and how they have been treated by academicians. It presents a detailed description of the ways in which audience is embedded within the news construction process, presents a very representative set of journalistic news values, presents differing ideas of audience at three key levels of the news organizations: reporters and news gatherers, editors and producers, and senior editors, producers, and news directors, and seeks to summarize and position this study within the larger body of mass communication research. Books in Series, 1980 American Book Publishing Record, 2007 The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1985 Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2003-04
