National Character in Action Washington Platt,1961      National Character in Action Washington Platt,2017-10-13
Excerpt from National Character in Action Intelligence Factors in Foreign Relations Nations differ in their national character as much as individuals differ in personal character For success in international relations it is just as profitable and indeed just as essential to understand the character of the nation with which one is dealing as it is to understand the character of an individual in personal dealings This maxim applies equally to friends neutrals and potential enemies In all aspects of international relations and especially in the formulation and implementation of foreign policy an intimate understanding of the character of other nations must always be one of the vital factors in the situation usually one of the first factors Such understanding becomes part of almost every phase of foreign policy planning and execution It is an essential element of any international problems whether the genesis of the problem be military diplomatic economic political psychological or cultural National character includes the predominant traits in the character of individuals within a nation the effective character of influential groups and finally the coalescence of individual and group desires when a people responds to a crisis as a nation The term national character has been chosen for the title of this book because it is widely used and generally understood Its exact meaning is developed in the first few sections of the text and in Appendix A About the Publisher
