Tom Conley

Self Made Map:

The Self-Made Map Tom Conley, 1997 The Self-made Map Tom Conley, 1996 The self made map argues that during the Renaissance in France a new cartographic impulse affected both the graphic and imaginary forms of literature In this wide ranging and fascinating work Tom Conley demonstrates that as maps were plotted during this period a new sense of self emerged one defined in part by the relationship of the self to space Conley traces the explosion of interest in mapmaking that occurred with the discovery of the New World and discusses the commensurate rise of what he defines as cartographic writing writing that holds penetrates delineates and explores space Considering the works of such writers as Rabelais Montaigne and Descartes Conley provides a navigation through the printed page revealing the emerging values of Renaissance France Conley also exposes the ideological exercise inherent in mapmaking arguing that Renaissance cartography is inseparably bound up with the politics of the era He undertakes close readings of maps and illustrations discussing the necessity of viewing Renaissance maps in the context of their typographic layout graphic reproduction and literary and ideological import Mapping Discord Jeffrey N. Peters, 2004 Mapping Discord examines a series of allegorical maps published in France during the seventeenth century that cast in spatial terms a number of heated aesthetic and social debates It discusses the convergence of map making and literary creation in the context of early modern cartographic practice and demonstrates that the unique language of allegorical cartography raises important theoretical questions about the relations between rationalist discourses of science and the figural designs of imaginative writing In detailed analyses of the imaginary maps that appeared in seventeenth century novels and stories as well as of maps atlases and geographic treatises produced by professional scholars and engineers of the period Mapping Discord considers the ideological structure and uses of cartographic language and argues that allegorical maps have much to tell us about the potential capacity of every map to operate as a visual metaphor for power Illustrated Jeffrey N Peters is Associate Professor of French at the University of Kentucky Canada before Confederation: Maps at the Exhibition Chet Van Duzer, Lauren Beck, 2018-01-15 Each of the maps featured in this book was showcased in the exhibition Canada before Confederation Early Exploration and Mapping which took place in several locations both in Canada and abroad in Fall of 2017 The authors provide a scholarly study highlighting the importance and unique features of each of these jewels of cartographic history with particular attention paid to how they demonstrate the development of Canadian identity at the same time that they reveal Indigenous knowledge of the lands now known as Canada Global Crusoe Ann Marie Fallon, 2016-04-22 Global Crusoe travels across the twentieth century globe from a Native American reservation to a Botswanan village to explore the huge variety of contemporary incarnations of Daniel Defoe s intrepid character In her study of the novels poems short stories and films that adapt the Crusoe myth Ann Marie Fallon argues that the twentieth century Crusoe is not a lone struggling survivor but a cosmopolitan figure who serves as a warning against the dangers of individual isolation and colonial oppression Fallon uses feminist and postcolonial theory to reexamine Defoe's original novel and several contemporary texts showing how writers take up the traumatic narratives of Crusoe in response to the intensifying transnational and postcolonial experiences of the second half of the twentieth century Reading texts by authors such as Nadine Gordimer Bessie Head Derek Walcott Elizabeth Bishop and J M Coetzee within their social historical and political contexts Fallon shows how contemporary revisions of the novel reveal the tensions inherent in the transnational project as people and ideas move across borders with frequency if not necessarily with ease In the novel Robinson Crusoe Crusoe's discovery of Friday's footprint fills him with such anxiety that he feels the print like an animal and burrows into his shelter Likewise modern readers and writers continue to experience a deep anxiety when confronting the narrative issues at the center of Crusoe's story

The Self-made Man Karl Friedrich von Klöden,1876 Atlas of Emotion Giuliana Bruno,2018-07-10 An award winning cultural history of how we experience the world through art film and architecture Atlas of Emotion is a highly original endeavor to map the cultural terrain of spatio visual arts In an evocative blend of words and pictures Giuliana Bruno emphasizes the connections between sight and site and motion and emotion In so doing she touches on the art of Gerhard Richter and Louise Bourgeois the filmmaking of Peter Greenaway and Michelangelo Antonioni media archaeology and the origins of the museum and her own journeys to her native Naples Visually luscious and daring in conception Bruno's book opens new vistas and understandings at every turn
