always be a priority You should put yourself above everything else Taking care of yourself brings peace and happiness It helps you face challenges with courage and come out of them successfully The moment you stop loving yourself you start losing happiness and your inner peace A person with a strong sense of self love is more likely to have a healthier relationship and face life s challenges with greater resilience Self love is the kind of love that can never end It is the kind of love that makes you find happiness Self love is important if you want to attract love into a relationship You cannot truly love a person if you do not love yourself first To let love into your life you must first love yourself The most important relationship you can have is not with your loved one but with yourself When you don t love yourself it doesn t take much to not love everything around you and to get caught up in the judgments the reproaches that make life seem unhappy and aimless In life there are moments when we have a failure a rejection an abandonment a suffering But this is not a reason to hate yourself or think you are not worthy Understanding how to love yourself can help you deal with failure rejection pain rebuild your self confidence and enjoy a better life Self love means being able to see your own value When you love yourself you don t need other people to confirm your value By changing the way you see yourself you can actively reshape your personality and change the opportunities you attract You must understand that you have the ability to change your life You are the only one responsible for your life your actions and your happiness Love for yourself is the greatest gift you can give yourself Start today to change the way you communicate with yourself or show yourself the same compassion you would with a person you love Have you forgotten to think about yourself are you no longer happy do not recognize your value Then it s time you learned to make yourself a priority Here s what you ll find inside
