Selected Letters Of Alessandra Strozzi:

Selected Letters of Alessandra Strozzi, Bilingual edition Alessandra Strozzi, 2023-04-28 The letters of Alessandra Strozzi provide a vivid and spirited portrayal of life in fifteenth century Florence Among the richest autobiographical materials to survive from the Italian Renaissance the letters reveal a woman who fought stubbornly to preserve her family's property and position in adverse circumstances and who was an acute observer of Medicean society Her letters speak of political and social status of the concept of honor and of the harshness of life including the plague and the loss of children They are also a guide to Alessandra's inner life over a period of twenty three years revealing the pain and sorrow and more rarely the joy and triumph with which she responded to the events unfolding around her This edition includes translations in full or in part of 35 of the 73 extant letters The selections carry forward the story of Alessandra's life and illustrate the range of attitudes concerns and activities which were characteristic of their author The letters of Alessandra Strozzi provide a vivid and spirited portrayal of life in fifteenth century Florence Among the richest autobiographical materials to survive from the Italian Renaissance the letters reveal a woman who fought stubbornly to preserve

The liveliness of Ms Gregory's translation reminds me anew what a marvelous window these letters offer into the experience of a past world Dale Kent author of The Rise of the Medici Women and Gender in Medieval Europe Margaret Schaus, 2006 Publisher description

The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Medieval Women's Writing in the Global Middle Ages Michelle M. Sauer, Diane Watt, Liz Herbert McAvoy, 2026-02-02 This is the first encyclopedia devoted exclusively to medieval women's writing globally Focusing on the thousand year period between 500-1500 this comprehensive reference work addresses a long standing gap in scholarship on women writers from this period It challenges current understandings of the literary tradition of women by incorporating early writers and texts that remain marginal and by expanding definitions of textual composition to include more collaborative and contextual activities This encyclopedia also presents women in the context of the global Middle Ages Entries extend beyond works written in England Scotland Ireland and Wales to include works by women from Europe Africa and Asia By locating medieval women's writing within its cultural social religious and political contexts The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Medieval Women's Writing in the Global Middle Ages will be an ideal entry point for students and researchers coming into the field and a valuable resource for established scholars

Women's Letters Across Europe, 1400-1700 Jane Couchman, 2017-03-02 In response to a growing interest among historians as well as literary critics in women's use of the epistolary genre Women's Letters Across Europe 1400-1700 Form and Persuasion analyzes persuasive techniques in the personal correspondence of late medieval and early modern women It includes studies of well known women Isabella d'Este Teresa of Avila Marguerite de Navarre Catherine de Medicis of those less known Alessandra Macigni Strozzi Louise de Coligny Glikl of Hameln Argula von Grumbach Luisa de Carvajal y Mendoza Anna Maria von Schurman Barbara of Brandenburg and of others virtually unknown to history prosperous women like Elizabeth

Stonor and Cornelia Collonello and pauper women seeking poor relief in Tours Comprehensive in scope Women s Letters Across Europe 1400 1700 looks at women from England Italy France Spain Germany and the Netherlands and from various levels of society encompassing the nobility the gentry the middle class and the poor Each of the essayists considers letters both as historical documents giving insights into women s lives and as texts in which variations on epistolary forms are used for specific persuasive purposes The authors of the essays analyze their subjects capabilities and limitations as letter writers and the techniques they used to influence correspondents setting these observations in the framework of the women s particular stories Taken together the essays and the letter writers discussed therein illustrate in new ways how far from silenced many early modern women were how they were able to adopt and adapt strategies from the epistolary conventions available to them and how they could have an impact on their worlds through their letters Florentine Villas in the Fifteenth Century Amanda Lillie,2005-04-18 In this book which was originally published in 2005 Amanda Lillie challenges the urban bias in Renaissance art and architectural history by investigating the architecture and patronage strategies particularly those of the Strozzi and the Sassetti clans in the Florentine countryside during the fifteenth century Based entirely on archival material that remained unpublished at the time of publication her book examines a number of villas from this period and reconstructs the value systems that emerge from these sources which defy the traditional idealized interpretation of the renaissance villa Here the house is studied in relation to the families who lived in them and to the land that surrounded them The villa emerges as a functional utilitarian farming unit upon whose success families depended and where dynastic and patrimonial values could be nurtured Allegorica ,1999 Guglielmina Schianteschi (1463-1536) Catherine De Luca,2004 Practices of Gender in Late Medieval and Early Modern Europe Megan Cassidy-Welch,Peter Sherlock,2008 This collection argues that gender must be considered as both an approach to history and as a reflection of the deep workings of the lived historical past The sixteen original essays explore social and cultural expressions of gender in Europe from the fourteenth to the eighteenth centuries They examine theories and practices of gender in domestic religious and political contexts including the Reformation the convent the workplace witchcraft the household literacy the arts intellectual spheres and cultures of violence and memory The volume exposes the myriad ways in which gender was actually experienced together with the strategies used by individual men and women to negotiate resilient patriarchal structures Overall the collection opens up new synergies for thinking about gender as a category of historical analysis and as a set of experiences central to late medieval and early modern Europe Book Review Index ,2003 Vols 8 10 of the 1965 1984 master cumulation constitute a title index AdI ,1998 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1998 Vera Amicizia : Conjugal Friendship in the Italian Renaissance Amyrose Joy McCue Gill,2008 The Medici Women Natalie Tomas,2003 Earlier studies on the Medici family and its women have provided biographical details but this volume is the first for many years that focuses upon how and why their gender affected their access to power and the manner in which those women understood and exercised that power Female Journeys Claire Marrone,2000-06-30 In this study of 19th and 20th century French and Italian women s autobiography the author illustrates how the protagonists development unfolds through separation from oppressive social and familial structures Reading the selected life stories as bildungsromane and drawing on an array of both canonical and noncanonical texts in the various autobiographical subgenres Marrone concludes that the heroines movements away from oppressive structures are not limited to particular historical periods but are motivated by historical and cultural circumstances She thoughtfully traces the reasons why a 19th century protagonist might leave her country a turn of the century heroine might flee her family and a modern female character might separate from her mother carefully examining their motivations and their goals In telling their stories she concludes women writers continually challenge existing autobiographical conventions Marrone finds that postmodern texts prove that the journey toward selfhood may be an ongoing one one that unfolds through the creation of multiple life stories The author begins her study with a consideration of the tradition of women s autobiography in French and Italian literature of the 19th and 20th centuries Using several examples from various genres she brings issues of gender oppression marital abuse sexuality and motherhood to the forefront of the discussion She continues by analyzing the genres of autobiography and bildungsroman where they overlap and where they diverge specifically in women s writing Turning to specific authors and their works Marrone moves on to an analysis of the writings of Cristina Trivulzio di Belgiojoso C D eleste Mogador Sibilla Aleramo Oriana Fallaci Marie Cardinal and Annie Ernaux In examining the works of these writers the author concludes that women writers continue to attempt to define themselves in their own voices Marrone finds that postmodern writers participate in innovative experimentation in life writing hybrid texts creative auto biographies and collective life stories This clearly written engaging volume is a pivotal addition to the growing field of literature on autobiography The Doni Family, Raphael and Michelangelo Alice M. Park,2009 The Journal of Medieval and Early Modern Studies ,1998 From Florence to the Mediterranean and Beyond Anthony Molho,2009 Mosaics of Friendship Ornella Francisci,1999 In this volume more than 20 art historians have each written an essay to commemorate the birthday of Eve Borsock whose commentaries on contemporary portraiture continue to shape modern art criticism Italica ,1998
