New Scripture Way Of The Cross:

The New Scripture Way of the Cross Bill Huebsch, William Huebsch, 1993-01-31 Praying the Stations booklets are tailored to a specific audience and can be used year after year These booklets are appropriate for group and or individual use

The New Stations of the Cross Megan McKenna, 2003-01-21 One of today's most popular and respected Catholic writers presents the first guide to the new Stations of the Cross reflecting the revisions made by Pope John Paul II A traditional devotion for Catholics for more than four hundred years the Stations of the Cross commemorates the route Jesus traveled from being sentenced to death crucified and then buried in a borrowed tomb on the outskirts of Jerusalem In the past the devotion included a number of stations based on popular stories of piety and devotion but not mentioned in the Gospels Over the past eight years however Pope John Paul II has made substantial changes to the devotion in his Good Friday celebrations of the stations removing those not found in the Bible and replacing them with stations that more accurately follow scriptural accounts of Christ's passion The revised Stations of the Cross focuses on the condemned Jesus and on the community walking the way with him to the cross Unrelieved by stories like Veronica's wiping blood off the face of Jesus and his meeting with his mother this is a story of an execution The new stations deal directly with the pain suffering betrayal and injustice to which Jesus was subjected In explaining his reasons for revising the stations the Pope has said that the alterations are intended to serve as a model for other devotions and to encourage the return to the Scriptures as the source of and inspiration for contemporary worship In this helpful authoritative guide Megan McKenna presents the fourteen new stations with the scriptural passages that Pope John Paul II uses on Good Friday She also provides a basic introduction to the practices and reflections on the importance of the devotion for present day Catholics and Episcopalians

The Way of the Cross Fr. Mark Toups, 2019-12-16 Experience the way of the cross as you never have before Rather than meditating about Christ's journey to the cross pray with him Jesus as an observant Jewish man would have prayed the Psalms throughout the day and drawn strength and peace from them In The Way of the Cross Praying the Psalms with Jesus Fr Toups invites us to step closer to Christ and pray beside him drawing strength from Scripture during his last moments before the crucifixion Each station features A short reading from Scripture A brief meditation A Psalm to pray with Christ

Scriptural Way of the Cross FR ADRIAN. GRAFFY, 2020-02-14 The Stations of the Cross devotion meditating on Jesus's journey to Calvary is loved by Catholics around the world In this new set of meditations Scripture scholar Fr Adrian Graffy begins each station with a passage from the Bible helping the reader to reflect more deeply on the suffering of Christ Each passage of Scripture is followed by a short prayer addressed to Jesus and linked to the particular station An invitation to further prayer concludes each station

Walking the Way of the Cross Stephen Cottrell, Paula Gooder, Philip North, 2019-10-30 Found in Common Worship Times and Seasons The Way of the Cross is a series of scripture based devotions for personal or group use in Lent and Holy Week Similar in intent to the traditional Stations of the Cross it focuses wholly on the biblical narrative of the passion death and resurrection of Jesus This seasonal companion provides the sequence of fifteen meditations appears in full including opening and concluding prayers Each is accompanied by three short reflections from different perspectives by three of today s very best spiritual writers Paula Gooder offers reflections on the scriptural narratives Stephen Cottrell considers the story from the perspective of personal discipleship Philip North explores the story s challenge to mission and witness
