Performance Measurement Luca Quagini, Stefano Tonchia, 2010-08-24 Business Intelligence BI and Performance Management PM the development and delivery of business insight for users and the management of execution based on that insight are two solution types that promise to bring great value to enterprises Yet most organizations haven t yet realized the elusive benefits of these two important disciplines The reasons for this are manifold However the primary causes are the culture of the organization and its leadership This is a topic which I ve addressed at length in my latest book Pro les in Performance Business Intelligence Journeys and the Roadmap for Change The culture and leadership of the organization determines the importance and strategic intent surrounding the use of BI and PM Sadly most organizations lack the motivation to embrace transparency and accountability or to align with the strategy of the organization enabling execution and coordination in unison with the mission However once an organization and its leadership are ready to take a step towards real change creating an environment of openness sharing and alignment with BI and PM as its centerpiece the next question then becomes one of how and where to begin Even with great strategic intent missteps in the development and deployment of BI and PM and can cause disillusionment and disappointment lending support to the naysayers of the organization and leading to failure and abandonment of these critical programs

Identification of Internal Customer Requirements and Meeting Those Requirements Through Business Process Improvement Within a Quality Management System at an Australian Electrical Manufacturer

Astrid Rotarius,2001-05-03 Inhaltsangabe Abstract Increasing competition deregulation globalisation and technological advancement continuously create new business realities for organisations in the marketplace In order to cope with these structural changes many organisations aim at improving and innovating their business processes within the implementation of a quality management System In today s competitive environment however it is not sufficient to implement internally oriented business process improvements Instead companies have to concentrate an externally focused process improvements which add value to customers and thus enhance customer relationships Such customer value driven process improvements help to integrate marketing and operations strategies and thereby provide a significant competitive advantage A quality management system enables organisations to achieve a competitive edge through customer satisfaction in today s highly competitive domestic and global markets Customer satisfaction forms an integral part of a quality management system which focuses organisations an meeting or exceeding customer expectations through outstanding product and service performance The integrative approach of a quality management system motivates everyone in an organisation to serve the customer Customers include the end user external customers as well as all employees within an organisation internal customers As a result external and internal customer expectations and requirements drive business processes Moreover quality and customer satisfaction are defined by customers and not by internal specifications Therefore an organisation has to focus an adding value to products and Services from the customers perspective Achieving customer satisfaction by exceeding customer requirements is a growing concern to organisations throughout the entire business world Australian companies thus have to meet increasing international competition by providing customers with better quality products and services at lower prices than competitors In this system Total Quality Management represents the Overall organisational philosophy of the quality drive Kaizen is the instrument to achieve a quality culture in an organisation and Lean Management concentrates an the optimisation of time and cost in business processes especially in production A quality management System therefore aims at coordinating organisational improvement programs This paper aims at identifying
