
EFFECTIVE POLICE SUPERVISION EXAM REVISION QUESTIONS AND 100% VERIFIED ANSWERS!!

What is the trait category of leadership?

It identifies distinguishing qualities or characteristics a person possesses when functioning as an effective leader.

After researching the trait category of leadership qualities, six groups of traits were discovered and associated with leadership effectiveness. What are they?

Ability, accountability, attainment, involvement, situational, and standing.

What are the three types of leadership styles that can be used when a supervisor wants to influence the behavior of line officers?

Consultive, directive and participating.

What is the consultive style of leadership?

The supervisor shows concern for officers and their needs as well as organizational needs. Subordinates are allowed to participate in the decision-making process and are accepted as part of the team, but in the end the decision is still made by the supervisor.

What is the directive style of leadership?

The supervisor makes the decision and ensure that it is implemented. It is an authoritarian type of leadership, "do as I say".

What is participation leadership?

The supervisor consults with subordinates and involves them in the decision-making process. Attitudes, values and feelings are viewed as important. Group involvement is sought, and power is shared. It can only be used when there is genuine belief and respect for subordinates.

From a study of urban police departments four supervisory styles were identified. What were they?
