

A photograph of an elderly man and woman sitting together. The man, on the left, is wearing a black cowboy hat and has a long white beard and hair. He is looking down at the woman's hands. The woman, on the right, has short white hair and is smiling warmly. They are both wearing light blue shirts. The background is a soft, out-of-focus indoor setting with a window showing a blue sky.

George Shillington, 2015 Here V George Shillington seeks to understand both James and Paul as Jews engaged in different but complementary missions and concludes that the tension between those missions indicates a conflict between different politics of identity Provided by publisher James, the Apostle of Faith David P. Scaer, 2004-11-08 The epistle of James is often poorly understood Beyond questions of authorship and dating its contents are troubling Its powerful accusations of sin seem to overshadow the Gospel For this reason Luther called it an epistle of straw and questioned whether it should be in the Bible at all Author David Scaer thinks differently and he shares his insights with us in James the Apostle of Faith As the title indicates faith in Christ and the comforting Gospel are prominent in many places throughout this epistle Far from being a dreary series of moralisms James is filled with references to the atonement faith and forgiveness the sublime Gospel themes of the New Testament Particularly revealing are many parallels between the Epistle of James and the Gospel of Matthew especially the Sermon on the Mount and Jesus agricultural parables In this study of James Dr Scaer makes exciting discoveries some of which will surprise you You may not agree with everything he says but your thinking will certainly be stimulated Dr Paul Maier Professor of Ancient History at Western Michigan University and author of several best selling
