Method In Teaching Religion:

Christian Education Teaching Methods - From Modern to Postmodern Carlos C. Roberts, 2009-11 This book provides pastors professional teachers students of religious education or Christian education theological students and Sunday school teachers with methods of teaching the faith today and opportunities to reflect critically on the methods and approaches they use in the classroom in the changed cultural context of our postmodern world The book is the result of years of practical experience in the field of Christian education as a Director of Religious Education and head of a team involved in providing religious education training and producing teaching materials and textbooks for Sunday school and professional teachers of Christian education This book proposes the Herald model of church and model of Christian education as a very helpful model for postmodern culture

Method in Teaching Religion George Herbert Betts, Marion Olive Hawthorne, 1925 How to Teach Religion George Herbert Betts, 2019-12-04 In How to Teach Religion George Herbert Betts offers a comprehensive exploration of pedagogical principles tailored specifically for religious education Betts employs a pragmatic literary style blending theoretical insights with practical examples making the work accessible for both educators and theologians The text is grounded in the early 20th century context of progressive education reflecting the era's emphasis on experiential learning and moral development while also critiquing traditional dogmatic approaches that may hinder spiritual growth George Herbert Betts was an influential figure in the field of educational psychology and moral education which undoubtedly shaped his approach to teaching religion His background as a scholar and educator equipped him with unique insights into the psychological dimensions of learning enabling him to advocate for a holistic approach to religious instruction Betts's commitment to fostering critical thinking and personal reflection in students reflects broader shifts in the educational landscape during his time affirming the importance of adapting teaching methods to meet the needs of diverse learners This book is highly recommended for educators religious leaders and anyone interested in the intersection of education and spirituality Betts's thoughtful framework not only equips readers with effective teaching strategies but also encourages them to reflect on their own beliefs and practices fostering a deeper understanding of the transformative potential of religious education

How to Teach Religion George Betts, 2016-05-16 By far the best book we have as yet on how to teach the child religion until he is of age to follow the way of Christ as a thing of course The Outlook How not to teach religion in the Sunday school and the home as well as to teach it is here set forth in many impressive contrasts The great objective of wise teaching is the child to awaken his spiritual nature and touch the springs of his emotional response to the heavenly Father How to cultivate a religious attitude religious ideals loyalties habits and the sense of responsibility for others how to organize the mass of material for all this in the Bible in nature history and great biographies how to make truth vivid with teaching that sticks in memory how to protect children from intellectual difficulties are all well answered by a master in Israel Professor Betts has given us by far the best book we have as yet on how to teach the child religion until he is of age to follow the way of Christ as a thing of course The Outlook Principles and methods are stated with conciseness and clearness and with a kind of illustration that causes them to throb with life The book will prove an inspiration and practical help to every teacher who will read it and put its teaching into practice The Christian Advocate Treats the content of religion as identical with that of ethics and indicates how this material may be used effectively in classroom work The Dial Of great worth One thing is impressed upon the teacher at once the supremacy of religion Next comes the stern demand that the teacher should himself and for himself set religion first Seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness Then follow the rules and methods so easily learned then and so easily taught The Expository Times Frequently claims are made for books which when reviewed are found wanting Not so with this book which deals in a concrete and practical way with the underlying principle of religious instruction The volume is intended as a textbook for teacher training classes students of religious education and we are confident that many ministers will find it most suggestive and helpful Homiletic Review CONTENTS The Teacher Himself The Great Objective The Fourfold Foundation Religious Knowledge of Most Worth Religious Attitudes to be Cultivated Connecting Religious Instruction With Life and Conduct The Subject Matter of Religious Education The Organization of Material The Technique of Teaching Making Truth Vivid Types Of Teaching Methods Used in the Recitation
