do Christianity and librarianship have in common Netherlands Prime Minister and theologian Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 was among the first in the modern era to attempt to rejoin the dichotomy of sacred vs secular study when he said no single piece of our mental world is to be hermetically sealed off from the rest Over the years a number of publications have followed Kuyper s lead yet little has been written on the subject since Greg A Smith s notable Christian Librarianship 2002 Building on Smith s work this volume seeks to bridge the sacred secular divide with an exploration of how Christianity and the gospel are manifested through the profession of librarianship Catalogue of the Printed Books in the Library of the Faculty of

to engage God through his chosen cast of characters As the media eras continue to change oral to print to digital virtual too many Bible scholars and consequently pastors and Bible teachers in the West and beyond lack capability to effectively communicate Scripture to Millennials Gen Z and Gen Alpha These generations find little if any relevance in the Christianity promoted by those stuck in modernity s sticky abstract systematic theology Character Theology relates sticks and transforms these generations Why Because people grasp and engage God most naturally and precisely through his interaction with biblical characters and their interaction with each other Characters communicate the Creator s characteristics The roadmap to the recovery and expansion of Christianity in the twenty first century will be through Bible characters The Ridpath
