All Odds I Did It..... Why Can't You!! Armando LaChina, 2022-11-03 Since my arrival in the US in late 1954 I lived worked and was educated in the greatest city of the world New York City Twenty years later while managing the most exclusive tennis club of Manhattan I had the winter off that made me head south to Florida and the sun shine It was only a few days after that I learned about the construction of the largest complex of tennis and living quarters in Fort Lauderdale a large city north of Miami The Florida weather and magnificent amenities of the club made it impossible to resist so I bought an apartment there Fifty years later I am still living there where in 1988 I made it my only home The book describes the pain to say goodbye to the city that saw my second birth and for which I nurtured still much nostalgia for the years I happily spent there Now after many vicissitudes I am still happily living at the Lauderdale Tennis Club Monika McGowan my companion a Columbia University graduate who throughout the seven years in the writing of this book was an indispensable help I take this opportunity to thank her for her contribution As far as the book is concerned I hope that the contents in it will inspire
