Migrating from Pascal to C++ Susan N. Merritt, Allen Stix, 2012-12-06 Many students and programmers familiar with Pascal are now looking to upgrade their skills to a well structured object oriented programming language such as C This textbook provides such an upgrade path by presenting a course on C in the spirit of structured programming Both authors teach this material to a wide variety of students and include numerous programming exercises to test a reader s understanding and to increase their confidence in programming in C Building Resilient Migration Systems in the Mediterranean Region Mauro Testaverde, Jacquelyn Paviion, 2022-06-13 This report discusses the impacts of the COVID 19 crisis on migrants in the Mediterranean region and on their sending and receiving countries The report shows that policy interventions can help mobility continue safely in the aftermath of the COVID 19 outbreak and better prepare countries to respond to future shocks Using C/C++ Lee Atkinson, Mark Atkinson, 1993 Covers both the major C C compilers with examples shown in Borland C and Microsoft C C Includes chapters on moving to C and moving to C with conversion tips compatibility issues and common errors to avoid Upgrading to Fortran 90 Cooper Redwine, 2012-12-06 In 1991 a new international standard for Fortran was released which contained specifications for a new version of the language known as Fortran 90 It provides for dramatic extensions to previous Fortran versions This book is a comprehensive tutorial to Fortran 90 that relies mainly on a large number of short but complete programming examples to illustrate the differences between the new language and traditional Fortran The author gives thorough explanations of terminology and concepts which were not in general use before the release of the new standard Readers are assumed to have a working knowledge of one of the earlier versions of Fortran but otherwise no prior knowledge of Fortran 90 is assumed Migrating to Object Technology Ian Graham, 1995 Many commercial organizations are deciding to adopt object technology To make the transition successfully it is essential to work out a migration strategy covering technical managerial and educational issues This book for software team managers project leaders software engineers and others presents such a strategy and includes a fully enabled CASE tool that automates the process Global Migration and Diversity of Educational Experiences in the Global South and North Shoba Arun, Khawla Badwan, Hadjer Taibi, Farwa Batool, 2023-03-31 This book presents a child centred approach to migrant children s experiences in education Using a decolonising framework the book interrogates the diversity of migrant experiences in the global South and North The book brings together researchers and practitioners from education childhood studies sociology and linguistics to debate and theorise key methodological and empirical issues in migrant children s experiences through education It focuses on how diverse forms of global mobilities are key to transforming educational experiences of children and considers the interplay of class race gender geography and learning settings By doing so the book uncovers particular challenges for addressing sustainable development goals relating to education and inclusive development Diversifying the study of migration and development the book challenges the Eurocentrism of the discipline and contributes to ongoing efforts to liberate the field from labels and discourses that further marginalise migrant children Using an intersectional and decolonising approach to address an important gap in the diversity of migrant experiences the book will be of great interest to researchers scholars and students in the field of migration studies sociology of education intercultural education and international development National Defense Migration United States.
