

ROMANS

Greetings from Paul

1 This letter is from Paul, a slave of Christ Jesus, chosen by God to be an apostle and sent out to preach his Good News. "God promised this Good News about his Son. In his earthly life he was born into King David's family line, and he was shown to be the son of God when he was raised from the dead by the power of the Holy Spirit." He is Jesus Christ our Lord. "Through him everywhere what God has done for them, so that they will believe and glorify him, bringing glory to his name."

"And you are included among those Gentiles who have been called to belong to Jesus Christ. I am writing to all of you in Rome who are loved by God and are called to be his own holy people. May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace."

God's Good News

"Let me say first that I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith in him is being talked about all over the world. God knows how often I pray for you. Day and night I bring you and your needs in prayer to God, whom I serve with all my heart by spreading the Good News about his Son."

"One of the things I always pray for is the opportunity, God willing, to come at last to see you. For I long to visit you so I can bring you some spiritual gift that will help you grow strong in the Lord. When we get together, I want to encourage you in your faith, but I also want to be encouraged by yours.

"I want you to know, dear brothers and sisters, that I planned many times to visit you, but I was prevented until now. I want to work among you and see spiritual fruit, just as I have seen among other Gentiles. For I have a great sense of obligation to people in both the civilized world and the rest of the world, to the educated and uneducated alike. So I am eager to come to you in Rome, too, to preach the Good News.

"For I am not ashamed of this Good News about Christ. It is the power of God at work, saving everyone who believes—the Jew first and also the Gentile." "This Good News tells us how God makes us right in his sight. This is accomplished from start to finish by faith. As the Scriptures say, "It is through faith that a righteous person has life."

God's Anger at Sin

"But God shows his anger from heaven against all sinful, wicked people who suppress the truth by their wickedness." "They know the truth about God, but they do not give him the glory and honor he deserves. Instead, they became vain in their imaginations and exchanged the truth for a lie. Therefore, God gave them up to a shameful fate. For when they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give him thanks. Instead, they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened. Although they claimed to be wise, they became fools. And even though they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give him thanks. Therefore, God gave them up to a shameful fate. For when they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give him thanks. Therefore, God gave them up to a shameful fate. For when they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give him thanks. Therefore, God gave them up to a shameful fate.

God has given us the privilege to share the Good News. It's our duty as believers to spread the word that Jesus died for our sins and rose from the grave.

When we serve, we need to do so with all of our hearts.

When we gather we must encourage others and they must be encouraged by our faith.

The Good News brings power to save everyone who believes. God is making us right.

God can see our wrongdoings from Heaven.
