Lautensleger, Schuyler Rhodes, Ron Lavin, Stan Purdum, 2005 The Old Testament details the epic faith story of ancient people who just like us today seek God's answers to complex problems Yet because pastors sometimes overlook this rich source of preaching texts many people in the pews are not fully aware of the Hebrew Scriptures and their profound lessons for modern living In this inspiring collection of spiritually enlightening messages based on the First Readings from Cycle B of the Revised Common Lectionary four master preachers insightfully demonstrate the continuing relevance of passages from the Old Testament and the book of Acts Building on stories in which God moves ordinary people to extraordinary heights these sermons powerfully proclaim timeless themes of justice and righteousness while reminding us that God's grace is the model for the Christian community's core values of self-giving love and forgiveness Each thought-provoking message is filled with compelling stories and illustrations from everyday life and challenges readers to love and serve the Lord trusting in divine providence even in the midst of a world that sometimes seems cruel and senseless This essential resource is useful for Fresh homiletical approaches to the lectionary texts Preaching illustrations Understanding scripture passages Bible study and discussion groups Personal devotions and inspirational reading

The Idea of Human Rights Michael J. Perry, 1998-01-08 Inspired by a 1988 trip to El Salvador Michael J. Perry's new book is a personal and scholarly exploration of the idea of human rights Perry is one of our nation's leading authorities on the relation of morality including religious morality to politics and law He seeks in this book to disentangle the complex idea of human rights by way of four probing and interrelated essays The initial essay which is animated by Perry's skepticism about the capacity of any secular morality to offer a coherent account of the idea of human rights suggests that the first part of the idea of human rights the premise that every human being is sacred or inviolable is inescapably religious Responding to recent criticism of rights talk Perry explicates in his second essay the meaning and value of talk about human rights In his third essay Perry asks a fundamental question about human rights Are they universal In addressing this question he disaggregates and criticizes several different varieties of moral relativism and then considers the implications of these different relativist positions for claims about human rights Perry turns to another fundamental question about human rights in his final essay Are they absolute He concludes that even if no human rights understood as moral rights are absolute or unconditional some human rights understood as international legal rights are and indeed should be absolute In the introduction Perry writes Of all the influential indeed formative moral ideas to take center stage in the twentieth century like democracy and socialism the idea of human rights which again in one form or another is an old idea is for many the most difficult It is the most difficult in the sense that it is for many the hardest of the great moral ideas to integrate the hardest to square with the reigning intellectual assumptions of the age especially what Bernard Williams has called Nietzsche's thought There is not only no God but no metaphysical order of any kind For those who accept Nietzsche's thought can the idea of human rights possibly be more than a kind of aesthetic preference In a culture in which it was widely believed that there is no God or metaphysical order of any kind on what basis if any could the idea of human rights long survive The Idea of Human Rights Four Inquiries will appeal to students of many disciplines including but not limited to law philosophy religion and politics The Maritime Monthly, 1873 The Lady Drusilla Thomas Purnell, 1887 Dental Headlight, 1909 The People's Bible: Joshua-Judges V Joseph Parker, 1887 Religion and the Mind of Today Joseph Alexander Leighton, 1924 Essays Ralph Waldo Emerson, 1905 The Mennonite Quarterly Review, 1928 Old Fritz and the New Era Luise Mühlbach, 1898 Dental Practice, 1909 Science John Michels (Journalist), 1895 Vols for 1911 13 contain the Proceedings of the Helminothological Society of Washington ISSN 0018 0120 1st 15th meeting The American Antiquarian and Oriental Journal Stephen Denison Peet, J.
