NOTORIOUS LITERARY ATTACKS

Edited by ALBERT MORDELL

THIS is a collection of those critical considerations of important literary figures or movements which have never been collected before and to which access has been extremely difficult. Each article in this book is devastating in its attack, brilliant in its literary and critical style and important because of its source or the effect it has had upon literary history.

It contains among other articles the attack on Stevenson by Henley, Lord Morley's attack on Swinburne's Poems and Ballads of which the authorship only came out
