Race Intelligence:

Race, Intelligence and Education Hans Jurgen Eysenck, 1971 Race and Intelligence David Spears, Martin Richards, 1972 Race and IQ Ashley Montagu, 1999-04-08 Ashley Montagu who first attacked the term race as a usable concept in his acclaimed work Man's Most Dangerous Myth offers here a devastating rebuttal to those who would claim any link between race and intelligence In now classic essays this thought provoking volume critically examines the terms race and IQ and their applications in scientific discourse The twenty four contributors including such eminent thinkers as Stephen Jay Gould Richard Lewontin Urie Bronfenbrenner W F Bodmer and Jerome Kagan draw on fields that range from biology and genetics to psychology anthropology and education What emerges in piece after piece is a deep skepticism about the scientific validity of intelligence tests especially as applied to evaluating innate intelligence if only because scientists still cannot distinguish between genetic and environmental contributions to the development of the human mind Five new essays have been included that specifically address the claims made in the recent highly controversial book The Bell Curve Must reading for anyone interested in racism and education in America Race and IQ is a brilliantly lucid exploration of the boundary line between race and intelligence The IQ Argument: Race, Intelligence, and Education Hans Jurgen Eysenck, 1971 The author argues that the observed variability in IQ scores between Black and white people is genetically determined but should not be a factor in supporting segregation Race and Human Diversity Robert L. Anemone, 2015-09-04 This book lays out some of the basic problems of a biological theory of race in particular the arbitrariness of most racial classifications based on biological differences between populations It provides the biological background to a consideration of the biology of human differences Race in Mind Alexander Alland, 2002-09-07 In Race in Mind Alexander Alland challenges the idea that intelligence is related to race offering critiques of the biological determinism of Carlton Coon Arthur Jensen Cyril Burt Robert Ardrey Konrad Lorenz William Shockley and others Presenting evolutionary genetics in understandable and accessible language Alland demonstrates that biologically race cannot explain human variation Written in a lively conversational style Alland imparts real substantive scientific arguments and cuts through the ideological posturing and jargon that so often characterizes our discussions about race showing us a more nuanced and scientifically valid way to understand the diversity that is the human condition Opportunity Elmer Anderson Carter, 1923
