William Epstein, Franklin C. Shontz

Psychology In Progress:

Psychology in progress, 1976 Progress in Self Psychology, V. 19 Mark J. Gehrie, 2013-05-13 The contributors to Explorations in Self Psychology volume 19 of the Progress in Self Psychology series wrestle with two interrelated questions at the nexus of contemporary discussions of technique How authentic and relationally invested should the self psychologically informed analyst be and what role should self disclosure play in the treatment process The responses to these questions embrace the full range of clinical possibilities Dudley and Walker argue that empathically based interpretation precludes self disclosure whereas Miller argues in favor of authentic self expression and against the self psychologist's frustrating attempt to decenter from frustration or anger Consideration of the utility of a consistently empathic stance continues with Weisel Barth's clinical presentation and the discussions that it elicits about management of her patient's primary destructiveness Lenoff's critical rereading of Kohut's Examination of the Relationship Between Mode of Observation and Theory and Rieveschl's self psychological work with adolescents and Neville Symington's theory of narcissism Contributions to applied analysis explore topics as diverse as an exchange of dreams between John Adams and Benjamin Rush Mann's Death in Venice the films of Ingmar Bergman psychotherapy of the elderly and disabilities in the sensory motor integration in children And Volume 19 concludes with Constance Goldberg's candid and enlightening reminiscence of Heinz Kohut a very complex man with whom to be in a relationship

Progress in Social Psychology Martin Fishbein, 2015-06-19 Originally published in 1980 this title was the first of a new monograph series in social psychology The editor presents a format for showing the progress of social psychology as a viable exciting and relevant discipline The papers contained in this volume represent progress in theory and method as well as in basic and applied research In addition recognizing that not all social psychology is produced by people who label themselves as social psychologists the volume contains the contributions of scholars who are best known for their work in other areas

Progress in Self Psychology, V. 13 Arnold I. Goldberg, 2013-05-13 Volume 13 provides valuable examples of the very type of clinically grounded theorizing that represents progress in self psychology The opening section of clinical papers encompasses compensatory structures facilitating responsiveness repressed memories mature selfobject experience shame in the analyst and the resolution of intersubjective impasses Two self psychologically informed approaches to supervision are followed by a section of contemporary explorations of sexuality Contributions to therapy address transference and countertransference issues in drama therapy an intersubjective approach to conjoint family therapy and the subjective worlds of profound abuse survivors A concluding section of studies in applied self psychology round out this broad and illuminating survey of the field

Progress in Psychological Science Around the World. Volume 2: Social and Applied Issues Qicheng Jing, 2018-04-30 Progress in Psychological Science around the World Volumes 1 and 2 present the main contributions from the 28th International Congress of Psychology held in Beijing in 2004 These expert contributions include the Nobel laureate address the Presidential address and the Keynote and State of the Art lectures They are written by international leaders in psychology from 25 countries and regions around the world The authors present a variety of approaches and perspectives that reflect cutting edge advances in psychological science This second volume builds on the coverage of neural cognitive and developmental issues from the first volume to address social and applied issues in modern psychology The topics covered include educational psychology and measurement health psychology and social and cultural psychology Organizational applied and international psychology are also discussed Progress in Psychological Science around the World with its broad coverage of psychological research and practice and its highly select group of world renowned authors will be invaluable for researchers professionals teachers and students in the field of psychology Psychology in Progress William Epstein, Franklin C. Shontz, 1971 The Decennial Publications of the University of Chicago University of Chicago, 1903 The Decennial Publications, 1903 Proceedings American Warehousemen's Association, 1922 The Aim and Progress of Psychology and Other Sciences Jacob Robert Kantor, 1971 Bulletin, 1917 Progress in Self Psychology, V. 1 Arnold I. Goldberg, 2013-06-17 The premier volume in the Progress in Self Psychology Series was completed two years after Heinz Kohut's death in 1981 Hence this volume has a unique status in the history of self psychology it bears the imprint of Kohut while charting a course of theoretical and clinical growth in the post Kohut era Biographical reminiscences about Kohut Strozier Miller and commentaries on Kohut's The Self Psychological Approach to Defense and Resistance chapter seven of How Does Analysis Cure M Shane P Tolpin Brandchaft Oremland are juxtaposed with a section of self psychological reassessments of interpretations Basch A and P Ornstein Goldberg Clinical papers cover the selfobject transferences Hall Shapiro patient compliance Wolfe and the self pity response Wilson while theoretical contributions present ideas of Stolorow Bacal White and Detrick that are foundational to their subsequent writings This volume helped to shape the theoretical and clinical agenda of self psychology in the decades following Kohut's death Kohut, Loewald and the Postmoderns Judith G. Teicholz, 2015-12-22 In Kohut Loewald and the Postmoderns Judith Teicholz using the contemporary critique of Kohut and Loewald as a touchstone of inquiry into the current status of psychoanalysis focuses on a select group of postmodern theorists whose recent writings comprise a questioning subtext to Kohut's and Loewald's ideas Acutely aware of the important differences among these theorists Teicholz nonetheless believes that their respective contributions which present psychoanalysis as an interactive process in which the analyst's own subjectivity plays a constitutive role in the joint construction of meanings achieve shared significance as a postmodern critique of Kohut and Loewald She is especially concerned with the relationship both theoretically and technically between Kohut's emphasis on the analyst's empathic resonance with the analysand's viewpoint and affect and the postmodern theorists' shared insistence on the expression of the analyst's own subjectivity in the treatment situation Her analysis incorporates fine insight into the tensions and ambiguities in Kohut and Loewald whose work ultimately emerges as a way station between modern and postmodern viewpoints and her appreciation of Kohut and Loewald as transitional theorists makes for an admirably even handed exposition She emphasizes throughout the various ways in which Kohut and Loewald gave nascent expression to postmodern attitudes but she is no less appreciative of the originality of postmodern theorists who address genuine lacunae in the thought and writings of these exemplars of an earlier generation Teicholz s examination of what she terms two overlapping partial revolutions in psychoanalysis that of Kohut and Loewald on one hand and of the postmoderns on the other throws an illuminating searchlight on the path psychoanalysis has traveled over the last quarter of the 20th century The Significance of Sociology for Ethics Albion Woodbury Small,1902 The Suffering Stranger Donna M. Orange,2011-05-09 Winner of the 2012 Gradiva Award Utilizing the hermeneutics of Hans Georg Gadamer and the ethics of Emmanuel Levinas The Suffering Stranger invigorates the conversation between psychoanalysis and philosophy demonstrating how each is informed by the other and how both are strengthened in unison Orange turns her critical and clinical eye toward five major psychoanalytic thinkers Sándor Ferenczi Frieda Fromm Reichmann D W Winnicott Heinz Kohut and Bernard Brandchaft investigating the hermeneutic approach of each and engaging these innovative thinkers precisely as interpreters as those who have seen the face and heard the voice of the other in an ethical manner In doing so she provides the practicing clinician with insight into the methodology of interpretation that underpins the day to day activity of analysis and broadens the scope of possibility for philosophical extensions of psychoanalytic theory Psychological Review ,1896 The New Englander ,1882 Psychological Bulletin ,1906 Vol 49 no 4 pt 2 July 1952 is the association s Publication manual Psychological Review James Mark Baldwin,James McKeen Cattell,Howard Crosby Warren,John Broadus Watson,Herbert Sidney Langfeld,Carroll Cornelius Pratt,Theodore Mead Newcomb,1896 Issues for 1894 1903 include the section Psychological literature Comptes-rendus ,1924
