

The background is a painting showing a group of people in a church-like setting. In the foreground, a man in a dark blue tunic and a white hat is seated at a table, looking down at a book. To his right, another man in a white tunic is standing and looking towards the seated man. In the background, other figures are visible, including a man in a green tunic standing near a wooden structure. The overall scene suggests a moment of teaching or discussion.

Reforming Christianity:

Reforming Christianity Don Cupitt, 2001 Christian churches are seemingly in terminal decline Is a reformation and renewal of Christianity still possible even at this late hour Don Cupitt argues that it is possible but will be difficult Church Christianity as we have received it is handicapped by two great errors a mistaken interpretation of Jesus as having been the co equally divine Son of God incarnate and the mistaken belief that there is a controlling supernatural world beyond this world To escape from these errors we need to go back and start again from the historical Jesus and his message about the Kingdom of God on this earth We need to create a modern version of his kingdom religion a religion that is immediate beliefless and entirely focussed upon the here and now Reconstructing Christianity in this way calls for a revolution in thought At present the churches don't even want to think about reform and renewal but if they are ever to become serious this is the path they'll have to take

Reforming Protestantism Douglas F. Ottati, 1995-01-01 Reformed Protestantism has undergone drastic changes throughout its history in America Although it has become less prominent in American society Ottati reminds us that this particular Christian movement with its particular characteristics is still a dynamic and important witness to our world Always Reforming Craig D. Atwood, 2001 Always Reforming highlights the fact that in the modern era the notion of heresy has fallen apart Every church has been declared heretical at some time or other by another church and it is not the role of the historian to decide who is right or wrong on doctrinal issues Christians have adapted to sweeping social changes including scientific discoveries and changing world views This volume attempts to uncover some of the hidden dynamics of faith within the many ways in which other Christians have tried to live out the gospel in an uncertain world It also demonstrates that all human institutions including churches change over time Jacket

An Unorthodox Faith Kurt Struckmeyer,2017-02-14 The time is ripe for a new Christian reformation a profound transformation of theological substance not just liturgical style Jesus never intended to create a new religion of rites creeds and dogma that offered an eternal reward in heaven Instead he announced the subversive arrival of the kingdom of God a social and economic revolution of the heart based on a lifestyle of radical love lavish generosity extravagant forgiveness inclusive hospitality compassionate action selfless service a passion for justice creative nonviolence and simple living He invited his followers to transform their lives and change the world A postmodern Christianity will call people to engage in the Jesus revolution a conspiracy of love that rises up against the unjust systems of the world through everyday acts of kindness compassion and resistance An Unorthodox Faith provides a framework for a faithful life based on the Way of Jesus a way of living authentically and humanely for the sake of others It offers countless people those who remain in the church those who have left and those who have never ventured near with a life of faith that is meaningful intelligent and passionate
