Critical Research and Creative Practice with Migrant and Refugee Communities Brian Callan, Pearson Nkhoma, Naomi Thompson, 2025-07-17 EPUB and EPDF available Open Access under CC BY NC ND licence Drawing on the voices and experiences of refugees activists and professional practitioners this collection illustrates the complexities of migration with real world case studies and the possibilities of innovative and compassionate interventions Highlighting the use of creative and narrative methods in the social therapeutic and community sectors all chapters provide clear practice implications Rather than presenting migration as a problem to be avoided this book offers original insights on how research and practice can be better informed by the voices of those seeking a better way Refugee Community Organisations and Dispersal David Griffiths, Nando Sigona, Roger Zetter, 2005-10-05 Despite increased political and public interest in asylum issues in the UK little has been written on the topic This book written by leading experts in the field is the first to examine the role of refugee community organisations RCOs at a critical point of policy change The book is distinctive in combining theoretical discussion on the role of networks resources and social capital with fieldwork evidence and interviews with members of RCOs non governmental organisations NGOs and statutory authorities It critically examines the impact of dispersal and current legislative change on refugee communities and RCOs explores the integrative role of RCOs assesses the race relations framework in Britain and its effects on refugee organisations and provides a thorough and up to date literature review Refugee community organisations and dispersal is essential reading for practitioners and policy makers academics researchers and students of social policy social geography sociology and politics Members of NGOs working with refugees or in local government community workers and members of refugee communities themselves will also be keenly interested in the book Comparative issues raised by the research will be of direct interest to readers in other countries David Griffiths is a Research Fellow at Oxford Brookes University UK His research interests include British and European asylum policy Nando Sigona is a Research Associate at Oxford Brookes University His research interests include Roma refugees in Europe Roger Zetter is Deputy Head in the Department of Planning Oxford Brookes University His research interests include refugees and public policy Intergenerational Trauma in Refugee Communities Laura Kromják, Ajlina Karamehić-Muratović, 2024-11-08 This volume explores intergenerational trauma among refugee communities displaced throughout the world Considering patterns and findings across disciplines cultural contexts and methodologies the volume addresses the way trauma is passed on generationally among populations characterized by a large exodus from various regions and communities in which intergenerational trauma can be observed among second generation youth Drawing on studies of displaced communities worldwide this comprehensive and interdisciplinary analysis examines the effects of transgenerational trauma It explores definitions and concepts of intergenerational trauma comparing and contrasting perspectives across generations and the mechanisms at work in its transmission The volume is well suited for scholars across social sciences with interests in memory studies political violence and refugee and diaspora studies Urban Refugees Koichi Koizumi, Gerhard Hoffstaedter, 2015-04-10 Urban refugees now account for over half the total number of refugees worldwide Yet to date far more research has been done on refugees living in camps and settlements set up expressly for them This book provides crucial insights into the worldwide phenomenon of refugee flows into urban settings repercussions for those seeking protection and the agencies and organizations tasked to assist them It provides a comparative exploration of refugees and asylum seekers in nine urban areas in Africa Asia and Europe to examine issues such as status recognition international and national actors housing education and integration The book explores the relationship between refugee policies of international organisations and national governments and on the ground realities and demonstrates both the diverse of circumstances in which refugees live and their struggle for recognition protection and livelihoods

Encyclopedia of Community DAVID LEVINSON, KAREN CHRISTENSEN, 2003-06-30 Click Additional Materials for downloadable materials and samples Incredibly this is the first encyclopedia to focus on community as concept and experience so stands alone in its field as the one title any library must buy to cover this topic Essential for all readerships CHOICEA timely comprehensive and very welcome overview of a rich and rapidly growing field of inquiry Robert D Putnam Professor at Harvard University and author of Bowling Alone With every passing minute it becomes more and more apparent that our world is one community The Encyclopedia of Community serves as recognition of this trend and as a needed resource The four volume set not only explains the emerging buzz words of community such as social capital or civic engagement but also tells many stories of community institutions that work such as public libraries Sarah Ann Long Past President 1999 2000 American Library Association As we yearn to connect with our fellow citizens during these uncertain times we have a unique moment to encourage greater participation in our democracy and reinvigorate our communities The Encyclopedia of Community provides a timely diverse array of theories and practices that will help citizens understand the value of engaging together to make the critical choices that enrich the way we live learn work and govern in our local communities The Encyclopedia deserves a prime spot in the libraries homes and offices of all communities that want to invest in a brighter future for their residents and their children Nancy Kranich Past President of the American Library Association whose presidential theme was Libraries The Cornerstone of Democracy 2000 2001 American politicians often pair the word community with the word freedom to describe our basic values Yet though used constantly the word community is defined in widely different and contested ways Most people like the idea of community but some intellectuals worry that it might imply collectivism The great value of this new Encyclopedia is that it gives readers a chance to sample the many uses of the term and gain clarity about the issues at stake It is a major contribution to a more coherent understanding of this fundamental idea Robert Bellah Professor of Sociology Emeritus University of California Berkeley and co author of Habits of the Heart SAGE Publications is proud to announce the Encyclopedia of Community a major reference work that summarizes the many fascinating and important concepts of a global topic Community itself is a concept an experience and a central part of being human Whether the reader is a student researcher or professional in the field of psychology sociology or even economics this three volume work will provide the necessary definitions of community beyond traditional views Arranged in an A to Z fashion the Encyclopedia can also be viewed topically via a Reader s Guide This allows for interdisciplinary compare and contrast among topics such as types of communities social capital technology urban life politics and law community design and global studies Edited by the award winning team at Berkshire Reference and assisted by an editorial board of world renowned scholars the Encyclopedia of Community will prove to be one of the most widely used reference works in your collection Key Features 500 signed articles 3 volumes 2000 pages Reader s Guide Master bibliography 250 sidebars Appendices Resource Guides Master Bibliography Libraries Build Community Libraries and Popular Culture

Changes in Museum Practice Hanne-Lovise Skartveit, Katherine J. Goodnow, 2010 By examining the ways in which museums involve refugees and asylum seekers Changes in Museum Practice New Media Refugees and Participation explores the opportunities around new media Leading artists curators and academics come together to outline different degrees of participation by audiences and communities and explore a range of topics from video games to theatre from photography to participatory video and digital storytelling Case studies are used throughout to highlight the unique ways that various approaches to inclusion and participation can be used successfully Book Jacket

Refugee Communities Steven James Gold, 1992 This book contains the results of a long term ethnographic study of two ethnic communities in California Soviet Jews and Vietnamese the two largest groups of refugee immigrants over the past decade Gold examines each of these communities and compares their relationships with the host culture in a variety of ways ethnic group solidarity use of social services entrepreneurship barriers to success and assimilation He uses rich ethnographic material and two photo essays to link refugee communities with the more extensive literature on immigrants and on ethnic communities Gold finds that diversity rather than uniformity characterizes these communities His ethnographic portraits of these two groups and theoretical findings should be
