Sentiments And Acts:

What We Say/what We Do Irwin Deutscher,1973 This book has some of the qualities of a detective story and of a drama As a drama it resembles a dialogue between the author and his friends and foes The book has a beginning middle and end that do not correspond to the economical but quite a historical character of most scientific writing where the literature is reviewed and problems stated the evidence presented and a conclusion reached Instead the beginning is an account of the author s confrontation with a nagging persistent and perhaps ultimately insoluble problem that faces every honest researcher can we explain behaviour by giving evidence of attitudes The middle develops new leads and materials but never abandons the central characters of the first act The end in Pirandello fashion leaves us with a feeling of illumination but illumination of the essential paradoxes and difficulties not the light that breaks on a heroic solution Sentiments and Acts Irwin Deutscher,Fred P. Sentiments and Acts Irwin Deutscher,Fred P. Pestello,Frances G. Pestello,1993 Drawing on the example of Deutscher s earlier research as well as cognate work by ethnomethodologists this volume provides a more complex and valid account of the relationship between what we say and what we do Going well beyond the interpersonal level the authors explore the problematics of symbolic language and suggest a relevant line of investigation for those doing applied work in the nexus of human relations Irwin Deutscher is professor emeritus of sociology at the University of Akron Fred P Pestello is President of Le Moyne College H Frances G Pestello is professor and chair of the department of sociology at the University of Dayton

What we say/what we do Irwin Deutscher,1973 On Moral Sentiments John Reeder,1997 This unique anthology brings together for the first time the reactions that greeted the publication of Adam Smith s major philosophical work The Theory of Moral Sentiments 1759 Spanning over a hundred years of critical responses the collection includes three different sections the initial reply from Smith s friends David Hume Edmund Burke and William Robertson the more considered opinions put forward by Smith s contemporaries fellow Scots philosophers such as Lord Kames Thomas Reid Adam Ferguson or Dugald Stewart and finally the later nineteenth century largely critical views expressed by a new generation of philosophers The book reclaims Adam Smith as a major eighteenth century moral philosopher giving a rare insight into the atmosphere in which his ideas emerged and evolved brings together a wealth of inaccessible material from 1759 to 1881 stresses Smith s importance not only as an innovative economist but as a major ethical thinker includes some of Smith s replies to his critics contributions by all the key figures of the period including Hume Burke Robertson Kames Reid Stewart and Ferguson Introduction to Ethics Théodore Jouffroy,1840 Introduction to ethics, tr. by W.H.
