Michael McKenna

Nuns In Jeopardy:

Nuns in Jeopardy Martin Boyd,1975 Islands, Identity and the Literary Imagination Elizabeth McMahon,2016-07-09 Australia is the planet's sole island continent This book argues that the uniqueness of this geography has shaped Australian history and culture including its literature Further it shows how the fluctuating definition of the island continent throws new light on the relationship between islands and continents in the mapping of modernity The book links the historical and geographical conditions of islands with their potent role in the imaginary of European colonisation It prises apart the tangled web of geography fantasy desire and writing that has framed the Western understanding of islands their real and material conditions and their symbolic resonance from antiquity into globalised modernity The book also traces how this spatial imaginary has shaped the modern man who is imagined as being the island's natural inhabitant or mirror Importantly the book challenges these habits of thought by their relocation within larger topological and imaginary visions from islanders themselves

Convents and the Body Politic in Late Renaissance Venice Jutta Gisela Sperling,1999 In late sixteenth century Venice nearly 60 percent of all patrician women joined convents and only a minority of these women did so voluntarily In trying to explain why unprecedented numbers of patrician women did not marry historians have claimed that dowries became too expensive However Jutta Gisela Sperling debunks this myth and argues that the rise of forced vocations happened within the context of aristocratic culture and society Sperling explains how women were not allowed to marry beneath their social status while men could especially if their brides were wealthy Faced with a shortage of suitable partners patrician women were forced to offer themselves as a gift not only to God but to their fatherland as Patriarch Giovanni Tiepolo told the Senate of Venice in 1619 Noting the declining birth rate among patrician women Sperling explores the paradox of a marriage system that preserved the nobility at the price of its physical extinction And on a more individual level

she tells the fascinating stories of these women Some became scholars or advocates of women s rights some took lovers and others escaped only to survive as servants prostitutes or thieves Southerly ,1986 Vols for 1939 1944 include the Annual report of the Australian English Association v for 1945 1946 include the Annual report of the Sydney Branch of the English Association Australian Literary Studies ,1981 The ABC Movie of the Week Michael McKenna,2013-08-22 On September 23 1969 five years after the first made for television movie premiered the ABC network broadcast Seven in Darkness This was the first television film for an anthology show called the Tuesday Night Movie of the Week Dedicating ninety minutes of weekly airtime to a still emerging genre was a financial risk for the third place network a risk that paid off The films were so successful that in 1972 the network debuted The Wednesday Movie of the Week Although most of the movies are no longer remembered a handful are still fondly recalled by viewers today including Duel Brian s Song and The Night Stalker The series also showcased pilot films for many eventual series such as Alias Smith and Jones The Six Million Dollar Man and Starsky and Hutch By the end of both shows regular runs in the spring of 1975 the network had broadcast more than 200 made for television films In The ABC Movie of the Week Big Movies for the Small Screen Michael McKenna examines this programming experiment that transformed the television landscape and became a staple of broadcast programming for several years The author looks at how the revolving films showcased the right mixture of romantic comedy action horror and social relevance to keep viewers interested week after week McKenna also chronicles how the ratings success led to imitations from the other networks resulting in a saturation of television movies As a cultural touchstone for millions who experienced the first run and syndicated versions of these films The ABC Movie of the Week is a worthy subject of study Featuring a complete filmography of all 240 movies with credit information and plot summaries a chronology and a list of pilots both failed and successful this volume will be valuable to television historians and scholars as well as to anyone interested in one of the great triumphs of network programming Of Virgins and Martyrs Barbara Ann Kathe,1998
