Modernization And Development In Search For Alternative Paradigms:

Modernization and Development Shyama Charan Dube,1988 Modernization and Development: the Search for Alternative Paradigms Dube S C,1988 Modernization Science Chuanqi He,2012-02-17 Depending on their national level of income development and modernization all countries in the world can be generally categorized as either advanced or developing Studies on why advanced countries continue to develop how they maintain their level of development and how developing countries enter into the advanced club fall into the field of modernization science which is an emerging interdisciplinary science This monograph the first English book available on modernization science interprets its concepts methodologies general theories first and second modernization six level specific six field specific and three sector specific modernizations modernization policy and evaluation and the principles and methods of national development since the 18th century It provides clear systematic up to date information on this new discipline with more than 173 figures and 265 tables and covers 131 countries and 97% of the global population A comprehensive outlook on world modernization is presented from a Chinese perspective Future Survey Annual 1990 Michael Marien,1990-01-01 The Political Economy of Development Berch Berberoglu,1992-01-01 This book focuses on the role of the state in economic development in a variety of Third World settings through an in depth analysis of the past several decades Berberoglu examines three major alternative development theories developmentalism dependency and neo Marxist He then critically analyzes these theories and their variants to set the stage for a detailed examination of various development paths Two paths of capitalist development are contrasted the export oriented neo colonial model and the import substituting state capitalist model The role of the state in each of these alternatives is discussed in the context of the balance of class forces Berberoglu also provides case studies of Turkey Tanzania Peru and India countries in which the state played a significant role in the development process In each case he demonstrates that the process of state capitalist development inevitably leads to neo colonialism This export oriented path ties Third World countries to centers of world capitalism with all the consequent contradictions that such a linkage entails The book outlines the class nature of these contradictions on a global scale and maps out the balance of class forces and struggles the role of the state and the resultant revolutionary developments that are part of the process of social change and transformation now under way in many Third World countries Also included is an appendix highlighting the need for a class centered approach in development studies State and Capitalist Development in India Surinder Kumar,C S. Verma,Prashant K. Trivedi,2023-12-01 This book seeks to encourage dialectical methods through the interaction of economic political and social factors to approach social analysis It examines various emerging issues in society in the era of globalization The issues raised in the critique will benefit scholars in comprehending social reality with a new perspective and approach This book will help policymakers look at more realistic conclusions for policy making This title is co published with Aakar Books Print editions not for sale in South Asia India Sri Lanka Nepal Bangladesh Pakistan and Bhutan

Redeveloping Communication for Social Change Karin Gwinn Wilkins, 2000 Proposes situating theory and practice within contexts of power recognizing both the ability of dominant groups to control and the potential for marginal communities to resist Contributors from communication and anthropology explore the global and institutional structures within which agencies construct social problems and interventions the discourse guiding the normative climate for conceiving and implementing projects and the practice of strategic interventions for social change Examines early and emerging models of development power dynamics ethnographic approaches gender issues and information technologies Mass Media, Modernity, and Development Fayad Kazan, 1993-11-30 Kazan tests several hypotheses on development communications derived from the ideas of Marx Toynbee Lerner McLuhan Frey and Schiller through three years of research he conducted in Saudi Arabia Oman Bahrain the United Arab Emirates Kuwait and Qatar He focuses on whether media content rather than the process of media exposure i e vicarious exposure to different experiences is the decisive factor in cultivating modernity Particularly Kazan examines whether Gulf media which convey socially and politically restricted traditional content in traditional societies cultivate attitudinal traditionality or modernity Investigated are the differences in the impact of local regional and foreign media and various media organs including newspapers magazines radio television video and electronic media Kazan also tests the notion of cultural imperialism such as the degrees of credibility that respondents lend to Western media their interest in and satisfaction with Western and regional media and the amount of time respondents allocate to Western and local media Specific media studied include the Voice of America Radio Moscow Monte Carlo Radio the BBC Voice of the Arabs Voice of the Arab Homeland Radio of the Islamic Republic of Iran and the local broadcasting services of each Gulf country Dr Kazan presents both a review and a critique of classical and mainstream theories of modernization in general and those of development communication in particular to determine the degrees of validity relevance and applicability of these theories to the development situation of Gulf societies Furthermore Kazan develops an integrated mass media effects model that factors in both macro and micro processes that are dynamically interconnected interdependent and continuously evolving and changing to account for the impact of media on modernity and development Media impact according to this model should be understood not only in terms of the socio economic and psychological characteristics of the media audience but also in terms of the dynamics of the whole socio cultural and political system Kazan concludes his study with a critique of the Western paradigm of development and presents the outline of a new paradigm of development that is more in harmony with the new physics with the ecosystems and with social justice Political Science Review ,1996

Globalization and Human Development Roni Kay M. O'Dell, Devin K. Joshi, 2024-01-29 Stories of humans striving for the good life are the focus of this new text from Roni Kay M O Dell and Devin K Joshi grounding students understanding of globalization and international development in real human and practical experience Globalization and Human Development provides a new history and focus to the study of international development with a concern for how people have been included or continue to be left out of the center of development thinking and practice While many books on international relations ignore the contributions and influence of the Global South this book incorporates their important contributions while at the same time recognizing the continued inequalities and disproportionate power and wealth of these marginalized nations This book is the first to examine the globalization of the human development and capability approach HDCA as an ideology of international development and an ideology of globalization It explores the relationship between HDCA and globalization and the extent to which the HDCA has been globalizing Further the authors analysis looks at How certain HDCA ideas are promoted discussed and cited more often than those stemming from neoliberalism and other development paradigms How the HDCA was influenced by development thinking in the Global South during the Cold War along with mobilizations to end all forms of colonialism neocolonialism and imperialism Why the HDCA has re oriented global development thinking and practice away from state centric and profit focused development models fixated on GDP growth to prioritize individual well being and freedoms Internationalization and National Development Marco Antonio Gonzalez Gomez,1998

Development and Tribal Fertility Dharm Raj Joshi,1996 Human Values, Social Capital and Sustainable Development Humnath Bhandari,Kumi Yasunobu,2009 Corruption, Leadership, and the Dialectics of Development in Africa Kenneth Ogechukwu Nwoye,2000 Transmigration and Regional Development Nuning Akhmadi,1994 National Development and Women Shyam Nandan Chaudhary,Pratima Kumari Chaudhary,1992 Dilemmas of Development J.
