THE STORY OF POSSUM TROT

Possum Trot

Robert Ezra Park

Possum Trot:

American Roadkill Don H. Corrigan, 2021-11-03 Slaughtered along our highways roadkill may be observed regularly but aren't likely to be given much thought. Research scientists, animal rights activists, roadkill artists, writers, ethicists, and lyricists however are increasingly sounding the alarm. They report that we are killing the very animals we love and are driving many of them to the brink of extinction. Detailing the death and destruction of mammals, reptiles, amphibians, and insect pollinators, this study examines the ways in which we are thus jeopardizing our own futures. Beginning in the Model T era, biologists counted the common carnage of the time: cottontails, woodchucks, and squirrels, mostly. That record-keeping continues today. Beyond the bleak statistics, zoologists are rerouting migratory paths of animals and are advocating for cat and dog companions. This book illuminates both our successes and failures in keeping animals out of harm's way and what those efforts reflect about ourselves and our capacity to care enough to alter the road ahead. Heart, Laughter, and Sentiment Eugene Pacetti and Jessica Robin Cooper, 2009-11 In this hustle and bustle world, many find it hard to sit down and read a complete novel or even read it in parts. These short stories and poems can be read a few each day or at your convenience. We've even thrown in a few of the best email forwards that you will love reading again. You'll laugh at Rudy the Gobbler during Thanksgiving, then the conversation Santa has with the reindeer in Santa's Last Stop on Christmas Eve. Your heart will warm reading poems from the heart. You even may shed a tear when you read about a son's death. As the year goes by, you can read about events of the season. Read the stories and poems to class and friends. They bring a great response from all audiences. This is a great collection of stories and poems in one book. Leave on your coffee table for all your guests to browse.

Tennessee Geographic Names Information System, Alphabetical Listing, 1990 Berglund V. First National Bank of Danville, 1991 A Name on a Wall Mark Byford, 2013-11-07 An unusual coincidence occurred early one morning at the most visited war memorial in the United States as a shaft of sunlight hit one of the 58,282 names on the Vietnam Veterans Memorial. The name was Larry Byford. So begins a unique personal journey to discover the story of the name on the wall. Travelling more than 30,000 miles from east Texas to Vietnam, Mark Byford learns about the lasting impact on Larry's siblings, friends, and the comrades who were there with him on the day he died in the summer of 1967. He pinpoints why that time became the turning point of America's most divisive war of the twentieth century. A Name on a Wall is a gripping true story that focuses on duty, heroism, and fate. We learn not only about the tragic loss of Larry Byford, a draftee rifleman in Vietnam, but also the contrasting war story of the author's own father, Lawry Byford, a draftee from Yorkshire for whom the Second World War became the springboard for a new life filled with opportunities. Forty years after the final American combat troops left Vietnam, thirty years after The Wall was built to heal a nation, and in the light of the recent controversial wars in Iraq and Afghanistan, what lessons, if any, have been learnt through the ultimate sacrifice of the name on a wall?
