Post Impressionists A Retrospective:

The Post-impressionists Martha Kapos, 1993 In 1910 the critic Roger Fry organized an exhibition at the Grafton Galleries London of avant garde painting which included works by Cezanne Van Gogh Gauguin and Matisse This exhibition became as important a landmark in the official histories of modern art as the subsequent Armory Show in America These artists did not belong to a single unified movement defined or recognized at the time and Fry in a quandary as to what to call the exhibition and losing patience at the last minute said Oh let s just call them Post Impressionists at any rate they came after the Impressionists In this way one of the important critical categories one of the isms of modern art was born But Post Impressionism was not a name which Van Gogh Gauguin Seurat or Cezanne or any artists of the period would have applied to themselves The documents in this book many of which appear in English for the first time show how artists and critics in the aftermath of Impressionism did describe themselves how they responded to tradition to each other and to the kaleidoscope of the contemporary scene This was a period of reconsideration of moving on from aspects of Impressionism and of coming to grips with the isolation that avant garde art had imposed on the individual artist It was a period in which the emphasis within Impressionism on the construction of painting purely by means of color had left artists with the question of how the power of this basic form related to their own feelings and to nature New ideas were coming from poetry as well as painting that laid the basis for modernism These issues and the personal struggles of the artists themselves are revealed in their letters and in the writings of friends and critics many of whom such as Mallarme Laforgue Huysmans and Proust were novelists and poets This book also includes commentaries from Rainer Maria Rilke Virginia Woolf and W H Auden as well as modern critics artists philosophers and art historians Georges Bataille Paul Klee and Meyer Schapiro on Van Gogh John Berger on Bonnard Maurice Merleau Ponty Clement Greenberg Adrian Stokes and Lawrence Gowing on Cezanne The text is illustrated with 119 colorplates and 125 black and white reproductions of contemporary photographs cartoons documents prints and drawings

Marketing Modernism in Fin-de-Siècle Europe Robert Jensen, 2022-02-08 In this fundamental rethinking of the rise of modernism from its beginnings in the Impressionist movement Robert Jensen reveals that market discourses were pervasive in the ideological defense of modernism from its very inception and that the avant garde actually thrived on the commercial appeal of anti commercialism at the turn of the century The commercial success of modernism he argues depended greatly on possession of historical legitimacy The very development of modern art was inseparable from the commercialism many of its proponents sought to transcend Here Jensen explores the economic aesthetic institutional and ideological factors that led to its dominance in the international art world by the early 1900s He emphasizes the role of the emerging dealer gallery market and of modernist art historiographies in evaluating modern art and legitimizing it through the formation of a canon of modernist masters In describing the canon building of modern dealerships Jensen considers the new ideological dealer and explores the commercial construction of artistic identity through such rhetorical concepts as temperament and independent art and through such institutional structures as the retrospective His inquiries into the fate of the juste milieu a group of dissidents who saw themselves as true heirs of Impressionism and his look at a new form of art history emerging in Germany further expose a linear dealer oriented history of modernist art constructed by or through the modernists themselves The Impressionists and Their Legacy Martha Kapos,1995 The documents in this book letters and recorded comments by the artists themselves as well as selections by notable contemporaries including Baudelaire Zola Valery Mallarme Huysman Laforgue and Proust show how artists and critics during and in the aftermath of Impressionism did describe themselves how they responded to tradition to each other and to the kaleidoscope of the contemporary scene The ever expanding interpretation of Impressionism and its legacy within the changing world of twentieth century art and art criticism is examined through the writings of artists such as Leger Kandinsky Masson Matisse Bataille Klee and Hofmann as well as recent critics philosophers and art historians Accompanying the texts are 235 color plates of Impressionist and Post Impressionist masterpieces and 242 black and white reproductions of historical photographs original documents contemporary cartoons prints and drawings Jacket flap The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1911 Sickert Wendy Baron,Walter Sickert,2006-01-01 Walter Richard Sickert 1860 1942 was an artist of prodigious creativity For sixty years in his roles as painter teacher and polemicist he was a source of inspiration and influence to successive generations of British painters With his roots in the Victorian era Sickert broke all taboos He was uncompromisingly truthful revealing beauty in the squalid as in the sublime in cockney music halls the crumbling streets of Dieppe the grand sites of Venice and the low life of Camden Town Decades before Warhol he exploited the potential of photo based imagery and of studio production lines to create iconic portraits of the grandees of theatrical social and political life This catalogue is divided into two parts essay chapters describe Sickert s chronology in terms of stylistic and technical development and a fully illustrated catalogue presents more than 2800 drawings and paintings many of which have never been published before The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1911 The London Mercury ,1928 Exhibitions that Made Art History: Salon to biennial, 1863-1959 Bruce Altshuler,2008 This is the most comprehensive reference book on contemporary art group exhibitions Coverage includes the development of modern art shown through all of the most influential group exhibitions in history This is intended to be a two volume set with the second volume intended for publication in 2009 Volume 1 opens with the revolutionary first Salon des Refus s in Paris of 1863 and concludes with the multi locational international exhibition The New American Painting organized by the Museum of Modern Art New York 1958 59 This work includes a wealth of rare documentary material and ephemera such as installation photographs publications and reviews of the period This is an exceptional sourcebook for anyone interested in the history of twentieth century art exhibition design or curatorial practice Publisher Masterpieces of European Painting,
