But it isn't as simple as just calling a victim's ghost for information. The notorious gangster who preys on innocent young Russian women and brings them to America to become sex slaves also happens to be very dangerous. Will January be able to save lives again this time? Will ghosts be able to help her? And after finally finding the one man who can truly love her for what she is, does she have to endure seeing him die? Because the gift that helps her save lives is also the one thing that will surely drive Ash to his death.
