Love's Calendar Charles Fenno Hoffman, 1858      Love YOU Dinorah Nieves, 2017-02-21 Readers who have looked for love in all the wrong places won't want to miss Love YOU by Dr Dinorah Nieves. Focused on the importance of wellness and self care, this work blends research inspired advice with memoir and poetry to help readers find self love and fulfillment. Despite her professional success, a decade of unhealthy romances left Dinorah lost and feeling unfulfilled. Her one consistent companion was loneliness. Until, in the throes of a divorce, she embarked on a powerful journey through the eight dimensions of wellness and finally learned how to fall in love with herself. Through this self help memoir, Dr Nieves provides readers a blueprint that helps them do the same. Love YOU offers readers 12 ways to be who they love and love who they are. With a hint of urban poetry, some personal confession, a touch of research, and a lot of coaching, Dr Dinorah Nieves helps readers learn to overcome their issues and tap their potential. Finally, they'll begin looking for love in the only right place: inside.

The love of books María Angélica Thumala Olave, 2026-03-03 The Love of Books examines the affective bond between people and books in the UK. In the context of the unprecedented abundance of media offering information, storytelling, and entertainment, it investigates the attachment to print and digital books amongst readers from a range of backgrounds who read for pleasure, wish to be surrounded by print copies of books, and have trouble discarding books. Unlike existing research which focuses on prestige, social status, and cultural capital, this study centres on meaning, materiality, and emotion. Drawing on interviews and archive material, it shows how attachment emerges from the practical fusion of three elements that have so far been examined separately: the material surface properties of books, the act of reading, and books' symbolic power.      Love All Elizabeth Jane Howard, 2009-10-09 From the bestselling author of the Cazalet Chronicles, Elizabeth Jane Howard's Love All is a heartfelt story of love and adulthood in the 1960s. Graceful, moving. Daily Express. The late 1960s. For Persephone Plover, the daughter of distant and neglectful parents, the innocent, isolated days of childhood are long past. Now she must deal with the emotions of an adult world. Meanwhile, in Melton in the West Country, Jack Curtis, a self-made millionaire, has employed Persephone's aunt, a garden designer, in her sixties. She is to deal with the terraces and glasshouses of the once beautiful local manor house, one that he has acquired at vast expense. He also has plans to start an arts festival as a means to avoid the loneliness of divorce. Also in Melton are the Musgrove siblings, Thomas and Mary, whose parents originally owned and lived in Melton House. They are still trying to cope with the emotional consequences of the tragic death of Thomas's wife, Celia. As is Francis, Celia's brother, who has come to live with them and thereby perhaps to find his way through life. As Jack's festival comes together, so shall these disparate souls, their relationships intertwining, and their loves transformed. Her talent seemed so effervescent, so unstoppable, that there was no predicting where it might take her. Hilary Mantel, author of Wolf Hall.

Without Love Or Licence Hawley Smart, 1891      All the Days of My Life: an Autobiography Amelia E. Barr, 1913 During the ten years in which Austin was their home, Amelia Barr took an active part in the social life of the frontier capital.

and wrote in her diary vivid pictures of many Texans and local events and scenes In 1914 much of this material appeared in her autobiography All the Days of My Life Her accounts included women Sam Houston Indians who visited the capital and local affairs concerning the Civil War Though she did not show it outwardly Amelia Barr was a mystic and deeply religious Her life was governed by intuitions and prophetic dreams many of which she related in striking detail In 1866 the family moved to Galveston where Barr had found new employment In the yellow fever scourge of the next year Barr and three sons died leaving Mrs Barr and three daughters For a while she operated a boardinghouse on Tremont Street but when this venture failed she went to New York Tshaonline org

The True Christian's Love for the Unseen Christ Thomas Vincent,2025-05-30 Christian live is primarily motivated by our love for Christ Without manifesting love to Christ we are as entirely lacking spiritual life as a dead body lacks life when its soul departs for the other world Therefore professing a belief without loving Christ is dead religion and thus a professed believer who has no love to Christ is a dead man dead in transgression and sin Without a biblical love to Christ we may pretend to be Christians but we would lack entirely the true nature of a Christian In treating the true love of Christians towards Christ this book is like any other Puritan devotion intertwined with clear doctrine and sharp biblical precision in statements permeates this book on every page of it You will be unable to put it down and your life and devotion to Christ will be changed forever This book was originally published in 1812 under the title The True Christian s Love for the Unseen Christ The current edition has been proofread typeset for eBook readers and slightly updated for modern readers
