

EYFS Reception Planning

RE - Why is Christmas Special for Christians?

EYFS Development Matters outcomes: begin to talk about members of their own family and community and recognize that other families and communities may have different practices, customs, and beliefs. Learn about and celebrate different cultural and religious events, such as Diwali, Christmas, Eid, or Passover, developing respect and understanding for different beliefs and traditions. Reflect on their own experiences and discuss how they are similar or different to others' experiences.

Learning outcomes from the Manchester Diocese Scheme: Talk about people who are special to them • Say what makes their family and friends special to them • Recall simply what happens at a traditional Christian festival (Christmas) • Begin to recognise the word 'incarnation' as describing the belief that God came to Earth as Jesus • Retell religious stories, making connections with personal experiences.

Suggested Teaching: A way into this section could be to ask children to use special bits and pieces to make a lovely picture for a special person, talk about the person they have created it for and why they are special; then take it and give it to them. • Show baby photos of known adults to the children. Can they match them to the adult photo? • Use a story sack to introduce a crib scene, beginning with the three figures, Mary, Joseph and baby Jesus, and including shepherds, wise men, donkey, angels, etc. Discuss the children's knowledge about the role of each key figure as it appears, as the crib scene grows. Place the figures in a line of value, starting with the figure that the children think is the most important to the least important. Read the story of Christmas from a children's Bible, matching the figures as you read. Reads the value line, including what Christians might say - most would say Jesus is the most important; that God came to Earth as Jesus (the term for this is incarnation). Act out the story. Set up a Bethlehem stable filled with costumes and/or props for the children to re-enact the story. • A parcel arrives in the classroom. Discover the contents with the children: birthday party props such as cake, candles, a banner, etc. Talk about children's own experiences of birthdays. Link to Jesus' birthday and Christmas celebrations with the next suggestion. • Bring out a Christmas box containing traditional Christmas artefacts, such as Nativity scene, cards, decorations, Father Christmas, special food, etc. Share some traditional carols with the children and discuss where and why Christians sing carols. • Talk about Christmas gifts and what the children would like. Connect with the story of the wise men who gave gifts to Jesus. Reinforce the most important gift to Christians would be Jesus. Mime passing a precious gift around a circle; discuss what children think it is. Link to how precious the Bible is to Christians. Christians believe God demonstrated his love for all people by sending Jesus to Earth - they say that shows how precious people are to God. • Provide follow-up activities to respond to the story as part of your continuous provision, e.g. playdough, Nativity figures, Christmas cards and songs, etc.

Suggested questioning to explore:

What special stories about Jesus are in the Bible? Why do Christians perform Nativity plays at Christmas? Why do Christians celebrate Jesus' birthday? What special things do Christians do at Christmas to share God's love? What makes every single person unique and precious? How does the Christmas story tell Christians they are precious to God?

Assessment Activity

Week 1

Special People in Our Lives

To identify and talk about people who are special to us and to understand that Christmas is a time to celebrate with loved ones.
Begin to talk about members of their own family and community.
Talk about people who are special

Begin by discussing who we consider special in our lives, like family. Create a mind map together (as a class or in small groups) of all the people who are special to us. Brainstorm and mind map together to allow chn time to think.
Then go around the circle and ask each child to share who their special person is

Children can draw or make a collage of their special person, using craft materials. Encourage children to be creative and discuss their special person.
