Postmodern Theology Frederic B. Burnham, 2006-10-01 The dominant position of science in our culture has ended In our postmodern world belief that science will provide the answer to our problems and that progress is inevitable has been shaken if not toppled Optimism has been replaced by realism creating a milieu for the development of intelligent Christian belief Participating in the Trinity Institute's conference on The Church in a Postmodern Age these six prominent scholars explore the breakdown of the basic tenets of the Enlightenment the sorry state of biblical literacy in our culture Christian faith in a pluralistic world the relevance of the Bible today and the role of the church in our age Contributors include Robert N Bellah Diogenes Allen George A Lindbeck James B Miller Sandra M Schneiders and Rowan D Williams

Postmodernizing the Faith Millard J. Erickson, 1998 The dean of evangelical theologians explores six evangelical responses both positive and negative to postmodernism

After God Mark C. Taylor, 2009-03 With fundamentalists dominating the headlines and scientists arguing about the biological and neurological basis of faith religion is the topic of the day But religion Mark C Taylor shows is more complicated than either its defenders or critics think and indeed is much more influential than any of us realize Our world Taylor maintains is shaped by religion even when it is least obvious Faith and value he insists are unavoidable and inextricably interrelated for believers and nonbelievers alike Using scientific theories of dynamical systems and complex adaptive networks for cultural and theological analysis After God redefines religion for our contemporary age Taylor begins by asking a critical question What is religion He then proceeds to explain how Protestant ideas in particular undergird the character and structure of our global information society the Reformation Taylor argues was an information and communications revolution that effectively prepared the way for the media revolution at the end of the twentieth century Taylor's breathtaking account of religious ideas allows us to understand for the first time that contemporary notions of atheism and the secular are already implicit in classical Christology and Trinitarian theology Weaving together theoretical analysis and historical interpretation Taylor demonstrates the codependence and coevolution of traditional religious beliefs and practices with modern literature art architecture information technologies media financial markets and theoretical biology After God concludes with prescriptions for new ways of thinking and acting If we are to negotiate the perils of the twenty first century Taylor contends we must refigure the symbolic networks that inform our policies and guide our actions A religion without God creates the possibility of an ethics without absolutes that leads to the promotion of creativity and life in an ever more fragile world Publisher description

Interrupting Tradition Lieven Boeve, 2003 Not so long ago it would have been fair to say that the Catholic Church and the Catholic faith determined human life and social existence more or less unquestioned in Flanders and in a large part of Western Europe The Catholic faith community in Flanders today however is struggling with the fact that the transmission of the Christian tradition has been flagging in recent years This has not only led to diminished faith engagement and a massive decline in church attendance it has also had its effects in the cultural domain culture has become de traditionalised traditional Christian culture is worn out Even convinced Christians are having problems reflecting on the plausibility of their faith precisely because of the chasm that has opened up between faith and culture The author of the present study argues that every new context challenges the Christian tradition to recontextualise its presentation of meaning and purpose in a cogent and credible fashion Christians today do themselves a disservice when they withdraw into a world of absolute self justification At the same time however the author avoids any form of appeal for an extensive adaptation to the postmodern context Only a new dialogue between tradition and culture respectful of and indeed thanks to the growing division between both can claim to offer a future In the first part of the book the author provides a pithy description of the vicissitudes of the Christian tradition in modernity and postmodernity Against this background he attempts to clarify the situation in which the Christian tradition finds itself today The second part of the book is devoted to an analysis of the actual context with a view to establishing points of intersection on the basis of which the dialogue between faith and culture may be revived The third part of the book endeavours to provide this dialogue with concrete form The reader is introduced to a challenging image of Jesus an image that is contextual and theologically motivated prior to being invited by the author into a reopened reflection on God The volume concludes by drawing renewed attention to the place of the Christian faith in relation to the other world religions The results of Boeve s study reveal that Christians do indeed have the capacity to reflect on their faith in a credible and relevant manner in relation to the actual context in which they find themselves and without relapsing into the extremes of traditionalism or relativism Lieven Boeve is professor of Fundamental Theology at the Faculty of Theology K U Leuven Belgium He is also co ordinator of the research group Theology in a postmodern context

Dangerous Blessing Carmen DiCello, 2005-06-21 Postmodernism has been both heralded and hated accepted and denounced But which is the proper response Is it an impetus to spiritual revival or an invitation to sinister deception Carmen C DiCello points out that Christians must examine everything carefully hold fast to that which is good 1 Thessalonians 5:21 while remaining alert to potential hazards Steering clear of extremes this book offers an approach to postmodernism in which believers can justly resist its darker elements while embracing its more noble ones Postmodernism is best seen as a Dangerous Blessing

Mapping Postmodernism Robert C. Greer, 2003-08-11 Helping you navigate the complex debate among Christians over postmodernism Robert C Greer maps four different paths marked out by Francis Schaeffer Karl Barth John Hick and George Lindbeck Ultimately he points to the true Subject who makes knowledge possible through the language of revelation and relationship with God Faith and Modernity Philip Sampson, Vinay Samuel, Chris Sugden, 1994 The context for Christian mission is the world of modern technology and modern thought Yet how well do we really understand modernity This book sets out the ideas discussed at a conference of the Lausanne Committee on World Evangelisation held in Uppsala Sweden in 1993

Nathaniel Anderson PhD, 2021-04-13 The Faith We Proclaim In The Postmodern Age Everybody Wants IT Few people have it Faith But Jesus came defeated Satan and took the authority from him that was originally Adam s He reinstated man in a position of fellowship with God Those who accepted Jesus through faith became born again and they were made the righteousness of God The God kind of faith took up residence in their hearts Hebrews 12 2 says Jesus is the author and finisher Developer of our faith He reintroduced it into the earth The faith revolutions will continue in the postmodern age Join Dr Anderson as he unlocks the scriptural faith of our Lord Jesus Christ in showing us How having the faith of Jesus is vitally important Dr Anderson has opened up the heavens of faith for generations to come The Postmodern is the era of the greatest faith being appropriated Ancient-Future Faith Robert E. Webber, 1999-11 In a world marked by relativism individualism pluralism and the transition from a modern to a postmodern worldview evangelical Christians must find ways to re present the historic faith In his provocative new work Ancient Future Faith Robert E Webber contends that present day evangelicalism is a product of modernity Allegiance to modernity he argues must be relinquished to free evangelicals to become more consistently historic Empowerment to function in our changing culture will be found by adapting the classical tradition to our postmodern time Webber demonstrates the implications in the key areas of church worship spirituality evangelism nurture and mission Webber writes The fundamental concern of Ancient Future Faith is to find points of contact between classical Christianity and postmodern thought Classical Christianity was shaped in a pagan and relativistic society much like our own Classical Christianity was not an accommodation to paganism but an alternative practice of life Christians in a postmodern world will succeed not by watering down the faith but by being a counter cultural community that invites people to be shaped by the story of Israel and Jesus A substantial appendix explores the development of authority in the early church an important issue for evangelicals in a society that shares many features with the Roman world of early Christians Students professors pastors and laypeople concerned with the churchs effective response to a postmodern world will benefit from this paradigmatic volume Informative tables and extensive bibliographies enhance the books educational value Amazon The Next Reformation Carl Raschke, 2004-11 Demonstrates how to reconcile postmodernism with Christian faith What Would Jesus Deconstruct? John D. Caputo, 2014-05-14 Uses the postmodern theme of deconstruction to suggest a constructive and provocative way forward for the church Faith and Praxis in a Postmodern Age Ursula King, 1998 We live in a culture which has broadly rejected the possibility of absolute belief in one overriding truth And yet we are surrounded by people who do believe who indeed are often intensely religious but believe in different things This fragmentation of culture is a challenge to all major religions Given that we have to live together and given that many of our starting points are the same even if our interpretations are different how do we cope with the practical day to day task of living and thriving in the same socio political environment This key postmodern dilemma is addressed in this valuable collection of essays by all international team of writers In a postmodern age can we believe at all If we accept that we are no longer unique where does that leave Christian spirituality British South African and Jewish writers explore ways in which the question of religion impacts on political life in Britain South Africa and Israel
