Preaching In Today's World:

Biblical Preaching for Today's World Lloyd Perry, 1990-03-08 Biblical preaching has not outgrown its usefulness. The methods may vary but the message remains the same. God's challenge and call to the preacher still come through loud and clear. Preach the Word. Lloyd M. Perry's Biblical Preaching for Today's World has been helping pastors and speakers preach the Word since 1973. Although the principles Perry originally established are timeless, the needs and concerns of audiences are always changing. To help pastors preach more effectively to today's congregations, Perry has updated his original manuscript. He offers pastors help in understanding and adjusting to the effects television has had on an audience's listening skills. Historical references throughout each chapter will also help preachers learn from yesterday's teachers and styles. Biblical Preaching for Today's World continues to offer sound, time-tested principles for preaching regardless of the preacher's style. Filled with helpful suggestions, annotated outlines, and solid documentation, it is invaluable reading for all who aspire to preach the Word.

A Philosophy of Pastoral Preaching David A. Christensen, 2023-05-26 I am a pastor. I preach. Doesn't that make me a pastoral preacher? Not necessarily. Many preach missional rather than pastoral sermons designed to appeal to the unchurched, not the church. The popularity of regional churches and the global reach of the internet allow preachers to focus their sermons on people they do not know and market a message to an audience they never see. Evangelical leaders produce many resources on attractional preaching, but who is developing a vision for pastoral preaching? David Christensen draws on years of experience to develop a philosophy of pastoral preaching. He writes, "Social media changes the way we preach. More and more pastors are preaching clickbait sermons. These are sermons designed to get clicks or attract interest rather than teach truth. We want catchy titles and clever analogies that will grab people's attention because the digital world is built on attention; whatever will get likes or drive outrage." However, pastoral preaching builds community. It is rooted in local soil, to the people we know in the place we live. We need a philosophy of preaching that shepherds a community of disciples who worship together in one place.

What's the Matter with Preaching Today? Mike Graves, 2004-01-01 Seventy-five years ago, renowned preacher Harry Emerson Fosdick asked in Harper's Magazine what's the matter with preaching. Fosdick's question is even more relevant today as both pastors and laity acknowledge the need for improvement in Sunday morning's sermons. And who better for pastors and students to learn from than those who already do it well? The contributors to this book are some of the best and most thoughtful preachers in the church and classroom today. In their essays, they assess the state of preaching today, identify a variety of issues that challenge effective preaching, and offer helpful suggestions for what can be done to improve preaching. In the process, they help to define what effective preaching is.

A Theology of Preaching and Dialectic Aaron P. Edwards, 2018-07-12 How does the preacher know what God might say now based upon the many things God said then Preachers and theologians throughout Christian history have grappled with Scripture's diverse emphases alongside the urgent task of declaring the authoritative Word of God in the contemporary pulpit Aaron Edwards offers a new way of engaging with this problem by exploring the theological relationship between biblical dialectics and heraldic proclamation Edwards highlights the theological necessity of dialectical variety without forfeiting assertiveness in the prophetic moment of preaching A vast array of key voices from the theological tradition are drawn upon including Augustine Aquinas Eckhart Luther Calvin Hegel Kierkegaard Chesterton Barth Bultmann Tillich Ebeling and others to navigate the connection between Scriptural unity clarity and paradoxical plurivocality leading to a nuanced account of dialectic Applying this to the homiletically neglected concept of heraldic confidence in preaching Edwards examines the theological possibility of preaching in light of dialectical complexity via its prophetic dimension He shows how the uniquely revelatory relationship of Word and Spirit enables Scriptural illumination prophetic discernment and dialectical decisiveness in the momentary encounter which undergirds all Christian proclamation

Preaching to a Post-Everything World Zack Eswine, 2008-04-01 Zack Eswine starts this unique pastoral resource with a captivating question Could I now reach who I once was Challenging the idea that today's preachers must do away with biblical or expository preaching if they are to reach non-Christian people Eswine offers a way of preaching that embraces biblical exposition in missional terms Recognizing all of the different cultural situations in which the gospel must be preached he gives preachers practical advice on preaching in a global context while remaining faithful to the Bible Pastors seminarians and church and ministry leaders who speak in various contexts will welcome this fresh thoughtful examination of bringing the Word to today's multi-everything post-everything world
