Quick Takes Elizabeth Penfield, Theodora Hill, 1995-10      Short Takes Elizabeth Penfield, 1998-07-01      Short Takes Elizabeth Penfield, 1987 This lively collection of fifty two short readable selections by both student and professional writers provides useful models of the rhetorical modes Provides useful models of the rhetorical modes Includes essays organized around the rhetorical modes narrative definition cause and effect classification and argument General Interest      Writing Groups Inside and Outside the Classroom Beverly J. Moss, Nels P. Highberg, Melissa Nicolas, 2014-04-04 This unique collection considers the nature of writing groups inside and outside the academic environment Exploring writing groups as contextual literacy events editors Beverly J Moss Nels P Highberg and Melissa Nicolas bring together contributors to document and reflect on the various types of collaborations that occur in writing groups in a wide range of settings both within and outside the academy The chapters in this volume respond to a variety of questions about writing groups including What is the impact of gender race and socioeconomic class on power dynamics in writing groups When is a writing group a community and are all writing groups communities How does the local community of a writing group impact the participation of group members in other local or global communities How does the local community of a writing group impact the participation of group members in other local or global communities What actions contribute to a strong community of writers and what actions contribute to the breakdown of community When and for whom are writing groups ineffective What is it about belonging to a community of writers that makes writing groups appealing to so many within and beyond the academy Each chapter highlights how writing groups whether or not they are labeled as such function in various spaces and locations and how collaboration works when writers from a variety of backgrounds with diverse interests come together Writing Groups Inside and Outside the Classroom illustrates that writing groups outside of the academy are worthy of study and serve as important sites of writing and literacy instruction Offering significant insights into the roles of writing groups in literacy and writing practice this volume is appropriate for scholars and teachers of writing rhetoric composition and literacy for writing center administrators and staff and for writing group participants      True Lies and Short Takes Eugene L. Stelzig, 2022-10-12 This gathering of autobiographical essays focuses on different experiences and periods of the author's life and hybrid identity a childhood spent in Austria teenage years in an American school and then a lycée in France coming to the U S as a young adult and attending college studying in England for two years and then settling permanently in the U S into an academic career The word essay in the title is meant in its original or French sense as an attempt or trial The twenty four items in this gathering are a kaleidoscopic collection of such attempts at different modes of self reflexivity They are arranged not so much in the chronological order of their composition as by way of loosely assembled thematic clusters True Lies suggests that by transforming lived experiences into language by way of memory imagination and reflection and often years and decades later we inevitably alter them as we write them down But we also re experience them and in so doing shift them into another register These recollections cover a wide range of experiences Stelzig s early years his absurd encounter with a barber in Salzburg his mysterious Buddha experience in Hong Kong his travel misadventure in Spain his career as an aspiring poet his commitment to teaching Shakespeare s plays his love of dogs and of tennis and the death of a nineteen year old Austrian au pair girl True Lies is divided into three parts Austrian Roots addresses Stelzig s early years including his relationship with his Austrian parents Adult Branchings focuses on his American adult life and identity The final section Falling Leaves is for the most part a set of reflections on the later stages of life and the sense of mortality and of time running out the challenge of being in time and the question of what remains Quick Takes Elizabeth Penfield,Theodora Hill,1995-01-01 The 33 essays and 20 paragraphs in this collection are models of various rhetorical modes Each is followed by suggestions for writing with pointers to help readers develop a topic use a particular pattern and draft a paper
