The Kaleidoscope of Gendered Memory in Ahlam Mosteghanemi's Novels Nuha Baaqeel, 2019-07-12 Through its unique kaleidoscopic lens this book analyzes the work of Algeria's first postcolonial woman writer to publish a novel in Arabic Ahlam Mosteghanemi Her novels Memory in the Flesh and Chaos of the Senses return to the trauma of the Algerian War of Independence to address the lingering anxieties of national belonging and memory in postcolonial Algeria at a time when the nation is caught between two forces entrenched bureaucratic political elites and populist Islamists who imagine a return to a pre modern utopian past This book argues that Mosteghanemi's polyphonic narratives reveal that national narratives are always multiple unity is not one all encompassing narrative but instead an ever evolving Bakhtinian dialogism accommodating multiple perspectives memories and stories The study interprets Mosteghanemi's metaphor of the bridge as a powerful device for exploring tensions between reality and imagination exile and belonging and traditional concepts of gender in ways that reimagine nationhood and gesture towards a new collective future

Chaos of the Senses Ahlam Mosteghanemi, 2004

Ahlam Mosteghanemi's second novel picks up where Memory in the Flesh left off with the story of love set in the battered and bruised Algeria of the 1990s Mosteghanemi takes her readers through the streets of suspicion and suspense and the ups and downs of a forbidden love affair through a story within a story as a writer stuck in a loveless marriage to an important military man inadvertently writes what eventually comes true She begins after a period of not writing by penning the narrative of a mysterious man who courts the object of his desire through deceptive words then she helplessly follows the path of her fictitious character only to find that the mystery man exists and it is he who has led her to his door and into his life One twist leads to the next as the question remains of which man the writer was destined to meet and fall in love with the mysterious artist or the doomed journalist This lyrical adventure teases the reader with facts for fiction and fiction for facts The backdrop of political chaos creates a sense of foreboding and fear for two powerless lovers But where is reality and
