Memory from a Broader Perspective Alan Searleman,1994 Memory from a Broader Perspective Alan Searleman,Douglas J. Herrmann,1994 Memory and Hope Alon Goshen-Gottstein,2018-08-08 This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even present day relations Its operative notion is the healing of memory developed by John Paul II Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present day relations At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope If memory informs our past hope sets the horizon for our future How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good Between memory and hope this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations Contributors Rahuldeep Singh Gill Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Flora A Keshgegian Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Muhammad Suheyl Umar and Michael von Bruck Memory, War and Trauma Nigel C. Hunt,2010-05-13 Many millions of people are affected by the trauma of war Psychologists have a good understanding of how experiences of war impact on memory but the significance of external environmental influences is often disregarded Memory War and Trauma focuses on our understanding of the psychosocial impact of war in its broadest sense Nigel C Hunt argues that in order to understand war trauma it is critical to develop an understanding not only of the individual perspective but also of how societal and cultural factors impact on the outcome of an individual s experience This is a compelling book which helps to demonstrate why some people suffer from post traumatic stress while other people don t and how narrative understanding is important to the healing process Its multidisciplinary perspective will enable a deeper understanding of both individual traumatic stress and the structures of memory The Cognitive Neuroscience of Visual Working Memory Natasha Sigala,Zsuzsa Kaldy,2017-06-02 Visual working memory allows us to temporarily maintain and manipulate visual information in order to solve a task The study of the brain mechanisms underlying this function began more than a half century ago with Scoville and Milner s 1957 seminal discoveries with amnesic patients This timely collection of papers brings together diverse perspectives on the cognitive neuroscience of visual working memory from multiple fields that have traditionally been fairly disjointed human neuroimaging electrophysiological behavioural and animal lesion studies investigating both the developing and the adult brain

Prospective Memory Matthias Kliegel,Mark A. McDaniel,Gilles O. Einstein,2007-10-16 Over the last decade the topic of prospective memory the encoding storage and delayed retrieval of intended actions has attracted much interest and this is reflected in a rapidly growing body of literature 350 scientific articles have been published on this topic since the appearance of the first edited book in 1996 In addition to the quan Genocide and Mass Violence Devon E. Interreligious Reflections, Six Volume Set Alon Goshen-Gottstein,2018-08-08 This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections

ABOUT VOLUME ONE Friendship is an outcome of as well as a condition for advancing interfaith relations However for friendship to advance there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews his closest personal friend

Contributors Balwant Singh Dhillon Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Ruben L F Habito Ryan McAnnally Linz Stephen Butler Murray Eleanor Nesbitt Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Johann M Vento and Miroslav Volf

ABOUT VOLUME TWO This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even poison present day relations Its operative notion is the healing of memory developed by John Paul II Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present day relations At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope If memory informs our past hope sets the horizon for our future How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good Between memory and hope this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations

Contributors Rahuldeep Singh Gill Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Flora A Keshgegian Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Muhammad Suheyl Umar and Michael von Br ck

ABOUT VOLUME THREE The essays collected here prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy explore the challenges associated with sharing wisdom learning teachings messages for good living How should religions go about sharing their wisdom These chapters representing six faith tradition Jewish Christian Muslim Hindu Sikh and Buddhist explore what wisdom means in each of these traditions why and how it should be shared internally and externally and the role of love and forgiveness in sharing This book offers a theory that can enrich ongoing encounters between members of faith traditions by suggesting a tradition based practice of sharing wisdom while preserving the integrity of the teaching and respecting the identity of anyone with whom wisdom is shared Contributors Pal Ahluwalia Timothy Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Sallie B King Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Miroslav Volf

ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world s religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Sidney H Griffith Maria Reis Habito B Barry Levy Deepak Sarma Michael von Br ck

ABOUT VOLUME FIVE The chapters collected in this book prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy address the subject of religious leadership The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership As such it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place What does it mean to be a religious leader in today s world To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions Studying the theme across six faith traditions Christianity Islam Judaism Sikhism Hinduism and Buddhism The Future of Religious Leadership World Religions in Conversation recognizes the common challenges to present day religious leadership Contributors Awet Andemicael Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Anantanand Rambachan Maria Reis Habito Meir Sender Balwant Singh Dhillon Miroslav Volf

VOLUME SIX One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other The question touches the roots of our theological views The Religious Other Hostility Hospitality and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness How does one move from hostility to hospitality How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology By including Abrahamic and non Abrahamic traditions it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Richard P Hayes Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Deepak Sarma Stephen W Sykes Dharma Master Hsin Tao Ashok Vohra Memory in Animals and Humans Andrew Richard Mayes,1983 The Gender of Memory Sylvia Paletschek,Sylvia Schraut,2008 This volume addresses the complex relationship between memory culture and gender as well as the representation of women in national memory in several European countries An international group of contributors explore the national allegories of memory in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the relationship between violence and war in the recollections of both families and the state and the methodological approaches that can be used to study a gendered culture of memory Improving Student Memory Douglas J. Herrmann,Douglas Raybeck,Dan Gutman,1993 This is a book for all types of students and professionals who would like to increase their ability to learn more rapidly and remember a wide range of material The authors are professional psychologists who have long specialized in this particular field and their suggestions here are based on the latest research findings about what actually works Counselor Education and Supervision ,1985 Cultural Memory Studies Astrid Erll,Ansgar Nünning,Sara B. Young,2008 This handbook represents the interdisciplinary and international field of cultural memory studies for the first time in one volume Articles by renowned international scholars offer readers a unique overview of the key concepts of cultural memory studies The handbook not only documents current research in an unprecedented way it also serves as a forum for bringing together approaches from areas as varied as sociology political sciences history theology literary studies media studies philosophy psychology and neurosciences Cultural memory studies as defined in this handbook came into being at the beginning of the 20th century with the works of Maurice Halbwachs on m moire collective In the course of the last two decades this area of research has witnessed a veritable boom in various countries and disciplines As a consequence the study of the relation of culture and memory has diversified into a wide range of approaches This handbook is based on a broad understanding of cultural memory as the interplay of present and past in sociocultural contexts It presents concepts for the study of individual remembering in a social context group and family memory national memory the various media of memory and finally the host of emerging transnational lieux de m moire such as 9 11 IBM Journal of Research and Development ,1978 Cognition Margaret W. Matlin,1998 This text s success has come in large part from its up to date coverage of important research and theories and offers the latest and most comprehensive overview of cognition on the market today Recent developments in perception imagery problem solving and creativity are highlighted along with advances in such areas as memory and language and expanded theoretical approaches Up to date carefully revised coverage of topics Clear engaging writing with numerous examples Students do not need to struggle to understand overly complex descriptions Extensive useful pedagogical devices Application of cognitive psychology to other disciplines Many applications relate to careers that students may intend to pursue such as education communication business consumer psychology clinical psychology social psychology medicine and law Margaret Matlin has a strong reputation for her research in cognitive psychology
